Smith, Brent C. Landau, 2023-03-21 A groundbreaking account of the Secret Gospel of Mark one of the most hotly debated documents in Christian history In 1958 at the ancient Christian monastery of Mar Saba just outside Jerusalem Columbia University scholar Morton Smith claimed to have unearthed a letter written by the Christian philosopher Clement of Alexandria and containing an excerpt from a previously unknown version of the canonical Gospel of Mark This excerpt recounts a story of Jesus's apparent sexual encounter with a young resurrected disciple In recent years an influential group of researchers has alleged that no Secret Gospel or letter of Clement existed in antiquity and that the manuscript that Morton Smith found was a modern forgery created by none other than Smith himself In this book Geoffrey S. Smith and Brent C. Landau enter into the controversy surrounding this document and argue that the Secret Gospel of Mark is neither a first century alternative gospel nor a twentieth century forgery by the scholar who announced its discovery Instead this account is intimately bound up with the history of Mar Saba one of the oldest monasteries in the Christian world In this fascinating work Smith and Landau present the realities and misconceptions surrounding not only the now lost manuscript but also its brilliant enigmatic and acerbic discoverer Morton Smith An Autobiography David Ogilvy, 1997-02-13 A unique personality Ogilvy the creative force of modern advertising The New York Times Ogilvy's sharp iconoclastic personality has illuminated the industry like no other ad man's Adweek an acclaimed author Praise for Confessions of an Advertising Man by David Ogilvy A writing style that snaps crackles and pops on every page The Wall Street Journal An entertaining and literate book that can serve as a valuable primer on advertising for any businessman or investor Forbes I remembered how my grandfather had failed as a farmer and become a successful businessman Why not follow in his footsteps Why not start an advertising agency I was thirty eight no credentials no clients and only 6 000 in the bank Whatever David Ogilvy may have lacked in money and credentials he more than made up for with intelligence talent and ingenuity He became the quintessential ad man a revolutionary whose impact on his profession still reverberates today His brilliant campaigns went beyond successful advertising giving rise to such pop culture icons as the famous Hathaway shirt man with his trademark black eye patch His client list runs the gamut from Rolls Royce to Sears Roebuck Campbell's Soup to Merrill Lynch IBM to the governments of Britain France and the United States How did a young man who had known poverty as a child in England worked as a cook in Paris and once sold stoves to nuns in Scotland climb to the pinnacle of the fast paced fiercely competitive world of advertising Long before storming Madison Avenue David Ogilvy's life had already had its share of colorful experiences and adventure Now this updated edition of David Ogilvy's autobiography presents his extraordinary life story and its many fascinating twists and turns Born in 1911 David Ogilvy spent his first years in Surrey Beatrix Potter's uncle lived next door and his niece was a frequent visitor His father was a classical scholar who had played rugby for Cambridge My father did his best to make me as strong and brainy as himself When I was six he required that I should drink a tumbler of raw blood every day When that brought no result he tried beer To strengthen my mental faculties he ordered that I should eat calves brains three times a week Blood brains and beer a noble experiment Before marrying his mother had been a medical student When World War I brought economic disaster to the family they were forced to move in with relatives in London Scholarships to boarding school and Oxford followed and then fleeing academia Ogilvy set out on the at times surprising at times rocky road to worldwide recognition and success His remarkable journey would lead the ambitious young man to America where with George Gallup he ran a polling service for the likes of Darryl Zanuck and David O.
