Sri Lanka Situation Report:

Outlook and Situation Report ,1984 Outlook and Situation Report. World Agriculture ,1983 Sri Lanka, State of Human Rights ,2003 The Tamil Separatist War in Sri Lanka Channa Wickremesekera,2016-02-26 The complex and long drawn war between the Sri Lankan government and the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam LTTE ended with the defeat of the Tigers in 2009 This book provides a military history of the conflict in tracing its evolution from a battle between a ragtag guerrilla force and a mainly ceremonial army to one between an organized guerrilla force with semi conventional capability and a state military apparatus that had morphed into a large and potent force with modern armour aircraft and naval vessels Using a wide range of sources this book offers an incisive analysis of the progress and conclusion of one of the longest and most destructive wars in modern South Asia Comprehensive and accessible the volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of modern South Asia especially Sri Lanka military history politics defence and strategic studies as well as the general reader Confronting Past Human Rights Violations Chandra Lekha Sriram,2004-08-12 This book examines what makes accountability for previous violations more or less possible for transitional regimes to achieve It closely examines the other vital goals of such regimes against which accountability is often balanced The options available are not simply prosecution or pardon as the most heated polemics of the debate over transitional justice suggest but a range of options from complete amnesty through truth commissions and lustration or purification to prosecutions The question then is not whether or not accountability can be achieved but what degree of accountability can be achieved by a given country The focus of the book is on the politics of transition what makes accountability more or less feasible and what strategies are deployed by regimes to achieve greater accountability or alternatively greater reform The result is a more nuanced understanding of the different conditions and possibilities that countries face and the lesson that there is no one size fits all prescription that can be handed to transitional regimes Enhancing Skills in Sri Lanka for Inclusion, Recovery, and Resilience Shobhana Sosale,Seo Yeon Hong,Hiran Herat,Shalika Subasinghe,2023-12-29 Sri Lanka is at a crossroads There is an urgent need to enhance skills in Sri Lanka to increase inclusion support recovery and build resilience This report addresses these issues and provides recommendations for strengthening skills and improving education Climate Change and Risk in South and Southeast Asia Devendraraj Madhanagopal,Salim Momtaz,2022-11-30 This book focuses on South and Southeast Asia upgrades our understanding of the influence of multiple sociopolitical and governance factors on climate change and risks Moving beyond science and technology oriented discussions on climate change it argues that the real solutions to climate change problems lie in societies governance systems non state actors and the power and politics underpinning these systems It presents a range of detailed conceptual empirical and policy oriented insights from different nations of South and Southeast Asia including India Bangladesh Sri Lanka Indonesia Vietnam Maldives and Bhutan The chapters bring forth critical discussions of climate change covering a diverse range of topics including livelihoods gender community perspectives relocation resilience local politics climate change communication governance and policy responses By investigating climate change vulnerabilities and as well as offering feasible solutions to the states and other non state actors in responding to climate change and risks this book deepens our existing knowledge of the social and political dimensions of climate change With interdisciplinary perspectives this book will appeal to all students researchers and scholars of environmental studies geography disaster studies sociology policy studies development studies and political science It provides valuable reading to practitioners policymakers and professionals working in related fields Poverty and Human Development in Sri Lanka Ramani Gunatilaka,Guanghua Wan,Shiladitya Chatterjee,2010-12-01 This report aims to summarize the current state of poverty in Sri Lanka by tracing its causes and recommending policies Special attention is paid to human development issues in the conflict affected areas The ongoing conflict in the north and east remains both the principal cause for poverty and the most binding constraint to human development in Sri Lanka Coronasphere Chandan Kumar Sharma,Reshmi Banerjee,2022-12-23 This book presents a broad overview of the challenges posed by COVID 19 in India and its neighboring countries It studies the differing responses to COVID 19 infections across South Asia the variegated impact of the pandemic on its societies communities and economies and emerging challenges which require an interdisciplinary understanding and analysis With a range of case studies from India Bangladesh Myanmar Pakistan Nepal Bhutan and Sri Lanka this book Analyses the socio economic impact of the pandemic including the structural challenges faced by farmers in the agricultural production and migrant workers in the informal sectors Examines the shifting trends in migration and displacement during the pandemic Explores the precarity faced by LGBTQ transgender Dalit tribal senior citizens and other marginalized communities during the pandemic Discusses the gendered impact of the pandemic on women and girls combining with multiple and intersecting inequalities like race ethnicity socio economic status age geographical location and sexual orientation Sheds light on the position of health infrastructure and healthcare services across different countries and the transitions experienced in their education sectors as well in response to COVID 19 A holistic read on the pandemic this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of sociology medical anthropology sociology of health pandemic and health studies political studies social anthropology public policy and South Asian studies Human Rights in Developing Countries, Yearbook 1994 Peter R. Baehr,Hilde Hey,Jacqueline Smith,Theresa Swinehart,2024-01-15 Since 1985 seven Yearbooks have appeared containing articles on recent developments with regard to human rights in developing countries Besides topical information on current issues and trends that pertain to these countries in general the Yearbook describes the current situation in a selected group of developing countries The Yearbook 1994 contains national reports on Angola China Ghana Honduras Pakistan Sri Lanka and Tanzania The authors and editors of the Yearbook use a broad definition of human rights meaning not merely civil and political rights but economic social and cultural rights as well This broad and modern perspective on the issue is reflected in the contents of the national reports and in the thematic studies in the first part of the book covering a wide range of issues relevant to human rights in the developing world Among the topics covered by the thematic studies this year are the Convention on the Rights of the Child the influence of recognized human rights standards in the national politics of Eastern Europe the social cost of adjustment and human rights protection and an evaluation of recent positive measures taken in the sphere of North South cooperation The Yearbook is an initiative of human rights institutes in Austria Denmark Norway Sweden and the Netherlands with the purpose of reaching a wide audience interested in both human rights and development aid issues

Peaceful Intervention in Intra-State Conflicts

Chanaka Talpahewa, 2016-03-03 Have we reached an end to the era of peaceful third party intervention in conflict management and resolution In the 1990s with the ending of the Cold War the intervention of third parties as a non violent means of negotiating settlements of intra state conflicts gained prominence but the emphasis in the twenty first century has been increasingly on military responses Peaceful Intervention in Intra State Conflicts Norwegian Involvement in the Sri Lankan Peace Process is an in depth impartial discussion on the background decision making processes and procedures and related actions in the Norwegian facilitated peace process in Sri Lanka that gradually shifted towards a military solution It provides the reader with evidence based comprehensive analysis on the attempts of peaceful third party intervention in a complex ethno separatist intra state conflict

Redefining Genocide Doctor Damien Short, 2016-06-15 In this highly controversial and original work Damien Short systematically rethinks how genocide is and should be defined Rather than focusing solely on a narrow conception of genocide as direct mass killing through close empirical analysis of a number of under discussed case studies including Palestine Sri Lanka Australia and Alberta Canada the book reveals the key role played by settler colonialism capitalism finite resources and the ecological crisis in driving genocidal social death on a global scale
