Subject: Request for baseball sponsorship Team

Dear Mr. XXX,

On behalf of the players and management of the Giants Baseball Team, it is with a great sense of hope that I write this letter to you. Without taking any more of your time, I would like to come straight to the point. The main aim of this letter is to request for your corporate or individual sponsorship of our baseball team. We strongly believe that with your esteemed position as the Chief Executive Officer of one of the state's fastest-growing telecom companies, you can assist us in this matter.

We are also encouraged by the fact that you are an avid follower and supporter of the engaging game of baseball. We thank you in anticipation of your positive response. Hoping to hear from you soon,

Yours truly,
XXX
Team Coach,
XXX Baseball Team

Sports Sponsorship, 2011-12-06 Sports Sponsorship A Professional's Guide offers long overdue advice on every aspect of the tough and often daunting task of seeking sports sponsorship. Written by one of international sports' most experienced and successful sponsorship sales exponents, the book is intended for sponsorship seekers at all levels from grass roots sport up to the highest echelons of professional sports organizations. Sports Sponsorship A Professional's Guide offers long overdue advice on every aspect of the tough and often daunting task of seeking sports sponsorship. Written by one of international sports' most experienced and successful sponsorship sales exponents, the book is intended for sponsorship seekers at all levels from grass roots sport up to the highest echelons of professional sports organizations. Brian Sims has been involved in motor sports from Formula Ford through to Formula 1, been the marketing director of two Formula 1 teams and been involved in US Indycar Racing with Lola and brought companies such as FedEx, Marconi and Gillette into Formula One when marketing director of the Benetton F1 Team. Brian is now on the Advisory Board of Oxford Brookes University, a Guest Lecturer for the World Academy of Sport and is also working with a talented young British racing driver competing in the 2013 European F3 Championship. The advice and guidance contained in Sports Sponsorship is relevant to many professional sports and has several case studies illustrating how to identify present and win support from potential partners. It is a must read for individuals, teams or organizations seeking to secure sponsorship in an ever-competitive world. The MurrayField Experience- Scottish Rugby: Inside the Sex Rat's Union, Sport and Alcohol Carwyn Jones, 2016-02-12 First book length study of alcohol in sport as an ethical problem. Addresses an important and prominent issue in contemporary sport. Draws on wide range of evidence from media reports and biographies to primary research data. Sport in the City Michael P. Sam, John Hughson, 2013-09-13 Sport is seen as an increasingly important aspect of urban and regional planning. Related programmes have moved to the forefront of agendas for cities of the present and future. This has occurred as the barriers between so-called high and popular culture continue to disintegrate. Sport is now a key component within strategies for the cultural regeneration of cities and regions, a tendency with mixed outcomes at times fostering genuinely democratic arrangements at others pseudo democratic arrangements whereby political business and cultural elites manipulate a sense of sameness and unity among their fellow citizens to smooth the path for the pursuit of what are actually vested interests. Almost any active enactment of a sports city of culture risks divisiveness. Recognizing controversies with both potentially positive and negative outcomes, this book examines sport within contexts of urban and regional regeneration via a number of rather different case studies. Within these studies, the role of sport stadium development, franchise expansion and sports fan and anti-sport activism is addressed and articulated with issues concerning inter alia public funding, environmental impact, urban infrastructure and citizen identity. The sport in the city project commenced as a research symposium held at the University of Otago, Dunedin, New Zealand, and number of the essays originate from this occasion. This book was previously

Professional Identities Shirley Ardener, Fiona Moore, 2007-08-01 In both professional and academic fields there is increasing interest in the way in which white collar workers engage with institutions and networks which are complex social constructions Covering a wide variety of countries and types of organization this volume examines the diverse ways in which individuals ethnic gender corporate and professional identities interact This book brings together fields often viewed in isolation ethnographies of groups traditionally studied by anthropologists in new organisational contexts and examinations of the role of identity in corporate life opening up new perspectives on central areas of contemporary human activity It will be of great interest to those concerned with practical management of institutions as well as those of us who find ourselves working within them

Sport, Culture and History Brian Stoddart, 2013-09-13 In addition to being an internationally recognised pioneer of sports history Brian Stoddart has also been a leading thinker and influence in the field That influence has crossed several areas of history sociology business politics and media aspects of sports studies and has drawn deeply upon his own training in Asian studies His work has been characterised by cross disciplinary work from the outset and has encompassed some very different geographical areas as well as crossing from academic outlets to media commentary As a result his influential work has appeared in many different locations and it has been difficult for a wide variety of readers to access it fully and easily This volume draws together in the one place for the first time some of his most important academic and journalistic work Importantly the pieces are drawn together by an intellectual autobiographical commentary that locates each piece in a wider social and cultural framework This book was previously published as a special issue of Sport in Society

Barbarians, Gentlemen and Players Eric Dunning, Kenneth Sheard, 2005 This revised edition of a classic text explores the development of rugby from a folk game into its modern forms Updated with a substantial new foreword and epilogue

Book 1: Futuristic Fifteen Man Rugby Union Bert Holcroft, 2014-01-21 The Holcroft saga a rugby story the like of which may never have been equalled in the history of the game It begins over a century ago when Mr George Holcroft was given charge of Leigh St Peters R L F C in 1889 He married and when his family grew up Jack Harry William and Tom all played for local teams They married and George s grandsons Bert and Bill also played Bert Holcroft has been a distinguished servant for the game of Rugby all his life He holds coaching certificates from BOTH the Australian and British governing bodies one of only a handful of men to achieve such an honour in the game s history For 20 odd years Bert Holcroft has had one of the unlikeliest jobs in sport teaching Australian Rugby Coaches how to coach Considering the Australian dominance of World Rugby in recent years that might seem a par with taking coal to Newcastle But make no mistake Bert Holcroft has done as much as anyone to ensure

Australia's re emergence as a major Rugby power On the face of it Australia wouldn't seem to need any outside help let alone from a Pom Their record of only one Test defeat since 1978 speaks for itself But Bert's reputation is nation wide down under quite simply he's one of the best in the business Bert who played for Leigh between 1950-60 has spent much of his latter years Down Under lecturing to top grade coaches in New South Wales Born and bred in Cameron Street Leigh Bert has few peers when it comes to teaching the basics of the 13 a side game Since emigrating in the late 60's Bert has dedicated his life to coaching and fitness techniques Teams in Queensland New South Wales and Sydney have all come under his influence often with spectacular results Bert's credentials are impeccable Last summer he achieved the highest accolade in Australia his Grade Three certificate personally signed by the then Australian league chairman Kevin Humphreys and the Director of Coaching Peter Corcoran Three years earlier Bert has sailed through his Grade One and Two with flying colours In 1953 he was awarded his senior coaching certificate in England Bert who held a number of posts at Hilton Park before emigrating to Australia has spent a lot of his time heavily involved with Rugby in the universities there He became director of coaching for the University of New South Wales and later coach of the Combined Universities side Coaching Accreditation awarded by the Australian Institute of Sport Department of Sport and Recreation NSW and the NSW Rugby League for administration as well as being awarded National Coaching Certificates in both Britain and Australia one of only a handful of people to do so

Eventually the offer of a job in Sydney came to coach Premiership glamorous club Eastern Suburbs Security Disarmed Sandra Morgen, Barbara Sutton, Julie Novkov, 2008-08-13 From the history of state terrorism in Latin America to state and group perpetrated plunder and genocide in Africa to war and armed conflicts in the Middle East militarization the heightened role of organized aggression in society continues to painfully shape the lives of millions of people around the world In Security Disarmed scholars policy planners and activists come together to think critically about the human cost of violence and viable alternatives to armed conflict Arranged in four parts alternative paradigms of security cross national militarization militarism in the United States and pedagogical and cultural concerns the book critically challenges militarization and voices an alternative encompassing vision of human security by analyzing the relationships among gender race and militarization This collection of essays evaluates and resists the worldwide crisis of militarization including but going beyond American military engagements in the twenty first century Sports Law in Australia Andy Gibson, 2024-09-17 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this practical analysis of sports law in Australia deals with the regulation of sports activity by both public authorities and private sports organizations The growing internationalization of sports inevitably increases the weight of global regulation yet each country maintains its own distinct regime of sports law and its own national and local sports organizations Sports law at a national or organizational level thus gains a growing relevance in comparative law The book describes and discusses both state created rules and autonomous self regulation regarding the variety of economic social commercial cultural and political aspects of sports activities Self regulation manifests itself in the form of by laws and encompasses organizational provisions disciplinary rules and rules of play However the trend towards more professionalism in sports and the growing economic social and cultural relevance of sports have prompted an increasing reliance on legal rules adopted by public authorities This form of regulation appears in a variety of legal areas including criminal law labour law commercial law tax law competition law and tort law and may vary following a particular type or sector of sport It is in this dual and overlapping context that such much publicized aspects as doping sponsoring and media and responsibility for injuries are legally measured This monograph fills a gap in the legal literature by giving academics practitioners sports organizations and policy makers access to sports law at this specific level Lawyers representing parties with interests in Australia will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative sports law Assembly West Point Association of Graduates (Organization).,1974
