Spaces in-between Mark Luccarelli, Sigurd Bergmann, 2015-10-05 Spaces in between goes beyond the emphasis on externalities signalled by the term environment to address the isolation of modern technological culture from nature. Solutions require more than an awareness of natural surroundings and human destructiveness. We think in terms of the re-conceptualization, re-design and re-negotiation of space. The book is concerned with social practices, belief systems, urban designs, the organization and representation of landscapes and modes of living. These aspects of spatiality suggest how to conceive and practice the intermingling of nature and culture and how to develop public commitment to such practices. In the process we show how concern for the environment as an aspect of space helps us to reconceive and reinterpret what it means to be human.

Internet Drama and Mystery Television Series, 1996-2014 Vincent Terrace, 2014-12-30 Created around the world and available only on the Web, internet television series are independently produced, mostly low budget shows that often feature talented but unknown performers. Typically financed through online crowd funding, they are produced with borrowed equipment and volunteer casts and crews, and viewers find them through word of mouth or by chance. The second in a first ever set of books cataloging Internet television series, this volume covers in depth the drama and mystery genres with detailed entries on 405 shows from 1996 through July 2014. In addition to casts, credits and story lines, each entry provides a website commentary and episode descriptions. Index of performers and personnel are included.
