Comprehensive Multicultural Education in the 21st Century Brandi Hinnant-Crawford,C. Spencer Platt,Christopher Newman,Adriel A. Hilton,2019-04-01 Multicultural education has become its own discipline developed on the shoulders of the work of giants who argued its merit during the attacks of opponents who believed assimilation was the purpose of state sponsored education In an age of rising populism and nationalism throughout the Western world again questioned is the merit of multicultural education In the shadows of Brexit and an America First agenda where migration patterns across the world have led to demographic shifts it is evident even in the richest countries in the world that gaps in opportunity and subsequently achievement still exist Disparities in achievement lead some to question whether multicultural education works and others to revert to old notions that ethnically and linguistically marginalized students are in fact deficient The scholars here believe in the untapped potential of all children and illuminate how educational structures have muffled the cultivation of that potential Contributors argue the goals of multicultural education have not been achieved in part due to the piecemeal application of its tenants The scholarship in this volume illustrates the state of multicultural education and articulates what educators committed to equity inclusion and a more just society must do to ensure the goals of multicultural education survive in the current age The authors of these chapters bridge foundational knowledge with contemporary understandings making the work both accessible for novices and beneficial for the authorities on multicultural education With the diverse cast of contributors and topics ranging from mathematics instruction to discipline practices this volume provides thoughtful discourse on issues of access access to curricular content access to opportunities to learn as well as impediments to access Containing chapters that speak to discipline specific pedagogical practices the structures of schooling teacher education and research methodologies the collected work encourages scholars and practitioners to not be discouraged in the age of retrenchment case that struck down a law that banned legally married gay and lesbian couples from receiving federal benefits Becker weaves together the political and legal forces that reshaped a nation Forcing the Spring begins with California s controversial ballot initiative Proposition 8 which banned gay men and lesbians from marrying the person they loved This electoral defeat galvanized an improbable alliance of opponents to the ban with political operatives and Hollywood royalty enlisting attorneys Ted Olson and David Boies the opposing counsels in the Supreme Court s Bush v Gore case to join together in a unique bipartisan challenge to the political status quo Despite initial opposition from the gay rights establishment the case against Proposition 8 would ultimately force the issue of marriage equality all the way to the Supreme Court transforming same sex marriage from a partisan issue into a modern crisis of civil rights Shuttling between the twin American power centers of Hollywood and Washington and based on access to all the key players in the Justice Department and the White House Becker offers insider coverage on the true story of how President Obama evolved to embrace marriage equality What starts out as a tale of an epic legal battle grows into the story of the evolution of a country Becker shows how the country reexamined its opinions on same sex marriage an issue that raced along with a snowballing velocity which astounded veteran political operatives Here is the ringside account of this unprecedented change the fastest shift in public opinion ever seen in modern American politics Clear eyed and even handed Forcing the Spring is political and legal journalism at its finest offering an unvarnished perspective on the extraordinary transformation of America and an inside look into the fight to win the rights of marriage and full citizenship for all
