Pat Mora Suspense:

International Perspectives on Chicana/o Studies Catherine Leen, Niamh Thornton, 2013-10-15 This volume examines how the field of Chicana/o studies has developed to become an area of interest to scholars far beyond the United States and Spain. For this reason, the volume includes contributions by a range of international scholars and takes the concept of place as a unifying paradigm. As a way of overcoming borders that are both physical and metaphorical, it seeks to reflect the diversity and range of current scholarship in Chicana/o studies while simultaneously highlighting the diverse and constantly evolving nature of Chicana/o identities and cultures. Various critical and theoretical approaches are evident from eco-criticism and autoethnography in the first section to the role of fiction and visual art in exposing injustice in section two to the discussion of transnational and transcultural exchange with reference to issues as diverse as the teaching of Chicana/o studies in Russia and the relevance of Anzaldúa's writings to post-9/11 U.S. society.

Dream Wakers Ruth Culham, 2023-10-10 There is power that resides in outstanding culturally diverse literature—a power that has the potential to engage students in reading and teach them about the art and craft of writing. In Dream Wakers: Mentor Texts That Celebrate Latino Culture, Ruth Culham focuses her love of children's literature and her decades of work developing the traits of writing into books that celebrate Latino life and culture. She provides a wide variety of ideas to teach writing using some of the richest and most beautiful children's books available. Dream Wakers gives you an annotated list of more than 120 books with do-it-yourself lesson ideas for teaching the traits of writing: Ideas, Organization, Voice, Word Choice, Sentence Fluency, and Conventions. More than half of the books listed are bilingual or offer English and/or Spanish editions. Eleven original insightful essays by renowned children's authors of some of the featured books. A handy reference chart that helps teachers locate books quickly by trait, genre, language, and author/publisher information. Ruth encourages all of us to make sure students of all backgrounds have access to high-quality culturally diverse texts and recognize the difference those texts will make in their reading lives as well as in their perception of themselves as thinkers, learners, and citizens.

House of Houses Pat Mora, 2022-05-31 Combining poetic language and the traditions of magic realism to paint a vivid portrait of her family, Pat Mora's House of Houses is an unconventional memoir that reads as if every member, death notwithstanding, is in one room talking, laughing, and crying. In a salute to the Day of the Dead, the story begins with a visit to the cemetery in which all of her deceased relatives come alive to share stories of the family, literally bringing the food to their own funerals. From there, the book covers a year in the life of her clan, revealing the personalities and events that Mora herself so desperately yearns to know and understand.

This Big Sky Pat Mora, 2014-05-30 This evocative collection of poems combines Pat Mora's simple yet shining words with Steve Jenkin's bright collage images. The landscapes, animals, and people come into sharp focus, and the beauty and mystery of the American Southwest are captured.
