Pathology Boards And Certification Examination For The Profession

Pathologist is the professional person who finds the causes and the nature of the disease. There are a lot of diseases for which the doctors depend on the pathological report for they will start the treatment based on the pathological report of the patients. The reports therefore contribute to the diagnosis and the treatment of the diseases. This knowledge is gained with the application of the different laboratory inspection process through which one can understand the root cause of the disease. The pathology's board review gives a lot of importance in this process and helps in choosing the right pathologist through its certification examination.

Examination for certification

The American board of Pathology conducts its examination for the certification of people for the profession. The people get evaluated by the credential committee of the pathologies board. The exam is based on the consideration of the medical school learning. The medical school graduates can apply for the certification and this medical school should be in Canada or in the United States. These schools should be accredited by the Liaison Committee. The graduate from any osteopathic college of medicine or medical school that is from anywhere outside the United States or Canada can also be considered as an applicant for such examinations. The pathology board review shows that the examination is conducted with lot of importance to it.

Work area of the pathologists

The laboratory is the main area where the pathologists work. They use the applications of the biological
