Gabbert, 2024-08-06 The practice of medicine is immersed in issues of life death and suffering in relation to the mortal body Because of this the medical profession is a fertile arena for folklore that serves to address these topics among physicians In The Medical Carnavalesque Lisa Gabbert argues that this extraordinarily difficult work context has led to the development of an occupational corpus of folklore backstage talk and humor that she calls the medical carnivalesque Gabbert argues that suffering is not only something experienced by patients but that the organization practice and ethos of medicine can induce suffering in physicians themselves Featuring topics such as the institutionalized nature of physician suffering death related humor and talk stories about patient bodies and parodies of medical specialties The Medical Carnavalesque shows us how the culture of contemporary medicine uses travesty humor and inversion to address the sometimes painful and often transgressive aspects of doctoring The Medical Carnavalesque connects patient and physician suffering to laughter acknowledges suffering as an essential component of life and constitutes a way in which some physicians address the core philosophical and existential issues with which they regularly engage as they go about their daily work Cumulated Index Medicus, 1972 Qualitative Health Research: Patients experiences Robert Dingwall, 2008 Script-Based Semantics

Salvatore Attardo, 2020-02-24 The book contains essays in honor of Victor Raskin The contributions are all directly related to some of the major areas of work in which Raskin's scholarship has spanned for decades The obvious connecting idea is the encyclopedic script based foundation of lexical meaning which informs his pioneering work in semantics in the 1970s and 1980s The first part of the book collects articles directly concerned with script based semantics which examine both the theoretical and methodological premises of the idea and its applications Script based semantics is the foundation of both Raskin's ground breaking work in humor research addressed by the articles in part 2 and in Ontological semantics addressed in part 3 the most recent development of script based semantics The fourth part is dedicated to a less known but equally important strand of Raskin's research the applications of linguistics to other fields including writing lexicography and professional applications e.g. tourism Overall the book provides an up to date in depth discussion of an influential strand of the discussion on semantics and its most recent developments and influence on other seemingly unrelated fields such as Cognitive Linguistics Fundamentals of Complementary and Alternative Medicine - E-Book Marc S.
