Paul Signac 111 Paintings:

Paul Signac: 111 Paintings Jessica Findley, 2014-11-27 Paul Signac was a neo impressionist painter who working with Georges Seurat helped develop the pointillist style Under Monet s influence Signac abandoned the short brushstrokes of impressionism to experiment with scientifically juxtaposed small dots of pure color intended to combine and blend not on the canvas but in the viewer s eye the defining feature of pointillism Many of Signac s paintings are of the French coast He loved to paint the water and experimented with various media As well as oil paintings and watercolors he made etchings lithographs and many pen and ink sketches composed of small laborious dots The neo impressionists influenced the next generation Signac inspired Henri Matisse and Andr Derain in particular thus playing a decisive role in the evolution of Fauvism

A Theory of the Tache in Nineteenth-Century Painting ?stein Sj?ad, 2017-07-05 Without question the tache blot patch stain is a central and recurring motif in nineteenth century modernist painting Manet s and the Impressionists rejection of academic finish produced a surface where the strokes of paint were presented directly as patches or blots then indirectly as legible signs C nne Seurat and Signac painted exclusively with patches or dots Through a series of close readings this book looks at the tache as one of the most important features in nineteenth century modernism The tache is a potential meeting point between text and image and a pure trace of the artist s body Even though each manifestation of tacheism generates its own specific cultural effects this book represents the first time a scholar has looked at tacheism as a hidden continuum within modern art With a methodological framework drawn from the semiotics of text and image the author introduces a much needed fine tuning to the classic terms index symbol and icon The concept of the tache as a crossing of sign types enables finer distinctions and observations than have been available thus far within the Peircean tradition The sign crossing theory opens onto the whole terrain of interaction between visual art art criticism literature philosophy and psychology

Georges Seurat Michelle Foa, 2015-07-14 This revelatory study of Georges Seurat 1859 1891 explores the artist's profound interest in theories of visual perception and analyzes how they influenced his celebrated seascape urban and suburban scenes While Seurat is known for his innovative use of color theory to develop his pointillist technique this book is the first to underscore the centrality of diverse ideas about vision to his seascapes figural paintings and drawings Michelle Foa highlights the importance of the scientist Hermann von Helmholtz whose work on the physiology of vision directly shaped the artist's approach Foa contends that Seurat's body of work constitutes a far reaching investigation into various modes of visual engagement with the world and into the different states of mind that visual experiences can produce Foa's analysis also brings to light Seurat's sustained exploration of long standing and new forms of illusionism in art Beautifully illustrated with more than 140 paintings and drawings this book serves as an essential reference on Seurat Warshawsky, 1980 Cézanne's Other Susan Sidlauskas, 2009 In the voluminous scholarship that has been written on Paul Cezanne little has been said about the twenty four portraits in oil that Cezanne made of his wife Hortense Fiquet Cezanne over an extended twenty year period In Cezanne's Other The Portraits of Hortense Susan Sidlauskas breaks new ground focusing on these paintings as a group and looking particularly at the differences that render many of them unrecognizable as the same person She argues that Cezanne sidestepped the conventional goals of portraiture he avoids representing a consistent identifiable physiognomy or conventional feminine postures and does not portray the subject's inner life making lack of fixedness itself his subject which leads him ultimately to a radical reformulation of modern portraiture Sidlauskas also upends the notion of Mme Cezanne as the irrelevant and absent spouse Instead she reveals Hortense Fiquet Cezanne as a presence so crucial to the artist that she became the essential other to his ever evolving self Coupling historical texts from philosophy psychology and physiology with more recent writings from women's and gender studies cognitive psychology and visual culture Sidlauskas demonstrates that Mme Cezanne offered intimacy at arm's length for the painter who has been dubbed the lone wolf of Aix Book Jacket Atlas of World Art John Onians, 2004 Combines a survey of world art with maps showing the associations and dissemination of culture across the globe Seurat, 1859-1891 Robert L.
