and Bobby aren't always listening to what I'm telling them. So for you and the boys I've included some tried and true recipes and some of my hard-learned tricks for getting out of culinary scrapes and Lord, honey, have there been a few? Whether it is a real disaster, the boss and his wife are coming over and the kitchen is full of smoke, no shame in serving some takeout or just an everyday bump in the road, your husband didn't hear the buzzer and the cake got a little dry in the oven, let some sugar water soak into those layers and no one will know the difference. I've got your answer. Just get cooking and let loose. Nothing makes memories like the smell of home-cooked meals. Jot down your ingredients and your musings, cut out a recipe card or two to share with friends, keep track of who came to dinner, who liked what, and who laughed the loudest, remember the good times and learn from the bad. Like I always say, there's not much in life you can't learn in the kitchen. Paula Deen
