May We Suggest Alison Pearlman,2018-10-16 An art expert takes a critical look at restaurant menus from style and layout to content pricing and more to reveal the hidden influence of menu design. We've all ordered from a restaurant menu. But have you ever wondered to what extent the menu is ordering you? In May We Suggest art historian and gastronome Alison Pearlman focuses her discerning eye on the humble menu to reveal a captivating tale of persuasion and profit. Studying restaurant menus through the lenses of art history, experience design, and behavioral economics, Pearlman reveals how they are intended to influence our dining experiences and choices. Then she goes on a mission to find out if, when, and how a menu might sway her decisions at more than sixty restaurants across the greater Los Angeles area. What emerges is a captivating thought-provoking study of one of the most often read but rarely analyzed narrative works around.

House Beautiful , Brandweek ,2004 Evangelist Marketing Alex L. Goldfayn,2012-01-03 In Evangelist Marketing Alex Goldfayn argues that technology companies succeed in spite of their marketing, not because of it. He says that if consumer tech makers ceased all marketing activity today, they would not see a significant decline in sales. In this book, Alex presents why the current state of overly technical, features-oriented tech marketing, branding, communications, and public relations is costing the industry billions of dollars in easy money that's voluntarily being left on the table. Then he lays out a step-by-step system for creating intensely loyal brand evangelists based on deep consumer insights and simple emotional language. Evangelist Marketing is written for consumer tech companies, big and small, from PC manufacturers to Web-based services. It's also sure to improve the work of their marketing and public relations agencies.
