4-25-86 WELCOME TO MY LIFE LAWRENCE BARNETT JR., 2009-05-12 My mother Diane Johnson Barnett wrote the poem that you read She is the strongest person I know As you get further into this book you will begin to further understand that statement In order to completely understand and appreciate the words of this poem you must know its inspiration In order to know its inspiration you as a reader please allow me to take you on a trip For this trip you will not need an airplane ticket train ticket or automobile ticket All you need for this trip is an imagination open mind and an open heart I guess the best way for me to kick this story off is to begin at the beginning and the beginning is the day I was born Saturday February 16 1980 5 30 a m Saginaw General hospital located in Saginaw Michigan Let me just stop and say that I am the kind of person that believes that God writes our life stories before we are even born Now let us run it back to the story When I was born it was into a family of hard workers who were and still are full of love I mean that they would have to be in order to deal with a character like me in a situation that was about to occur six short years later More of this later Trust me it all will make sense as we go deeper Before I continue to tell this story I hope everyone will be able to draw something Allow me to formerly introduce myself My name is Larry Barnett Jr I am twenty five years old and a student of Delta College I am paralyzed from my neck down I have been for the past nineteen almost twenty years All the words you have read so far are about me Yes it is true I was born 2 16 80 My parents Diane and Larry Barnett Sr they had a perfectly normal child with the full ability to run jump flip and fight Yes I said fight Some would call me bad Some other people would call me active Some would even say hyperactive However I prefer to call it creative I told you earlier that my mom is the strongest person I know Here why I say what I say My mother told me before she was pregnant with me how she would pray to God and ask him to give her a child she could love Believe me she has enough love to fill ten football fields The reason why I make this statement is that no matter what I have dealt with in my life she always had my back Even when I felt everything around me was falling apart she was always there when the dust settled Back to my childhood the first six years of my life was perfectly normal I was able to take family vacations to places like Mississippi Florida Alabama and Louisiana I must admit that I was still able to do some traveling after my life changed I went to places like Cedar Point amusement park in Ohio I was able to go to wrestle Mania IV in Indiana However none of these above trips would compare to the involuntary trip that I would take last June 19 1986 Thursday June 19 1986 the day in my life that I know I ll never forget because this is the day that I will be forced to leave everything that I know and love God knows how long but my life after actually began to take a frightening turn Two months and nine days before this From the day that I was born in 1980 until Friday April 25 1986 I had a normal childhood On this day everything for me almost ended By this time I was over half of my kindergarten years in school I was attending a school called St Stephens Just for the record I dislike everything about this particular school mainly those stupid blue uniforms that had to be worn daily Nevertheless I am getting too far up the track By this time in my life my mother and I had a pretty good routine In fact it went like this I would attend school from noon until 3 30 p m After school my mom would pick me up and take me to my Aunt Gloria Jean and Aunt Azailan s house until it was time for her to get home from work However this day we would have to break from our routine My mother told me that th

Reproductive Justice and the Catholic Church Emily Reimer-Barry, 2024-06-10 Pregnancy loss is profoundly complex ambiguous and alienating but telling women who have procured abortions that they are murderers and sinners is not the best way forward Magisterial teachings on abortion are too often presented as moral absolutes when in fact moral absolutism distorts the rich wisdom of the Catholic intellectual tradition This book initiates a new conversation about women s experiences of miscarriage stillbirth and abortion arguing that we need not approach these difficult life experiences in a simplistic way Dr Reimer Barry argues that both the pro life and pro choice movements make important and valuable claims yet each approach on its own is flawed Drawing on the framework of reproductive justice together with Catholic social teaching Dr Reimer Barry suggests a new way forward for abortion discourse that takes seriously the full human dignity of women and the intrinsic though not absolute value of prenatal life She argues that instead of thinking of the Church as a moral teacher with leaders in Rome or Washington DC dictating to the consciences of the faithful a better way to address the complexity of difficult pregnancy discernments would be to think of the Church as a community of support in the midst of and after difficult discernments a community that seeks justice together and implements structural reforms while also providing spiritual care to those in need What women deserve is justice
