

Welcome to

A man with long dark hair, wearing a tan jacket over a red shirt and dark jeans, is walking on a paved sidewalk. He is looking towards a woman walking next to him. The woman has blonde hair and is wearing a grey coat over a red dress with a white floral pattern, black tights, and black boots. She is gesturing with her right hand towards a sign. The sign is white with a blue border and is mounted on a wooden post. The sign is set against a background of dense green foliage. The sign is mounted on a wooden post that is set into a concrete base. The concrete base is surrounded by some dry leaves and grass. The sign is white with a blue border and has the text 'Welcome to STORYBROOKE' on it. The word 'Welcome' is in a cursive font, 'to' is in a small sans-serif font, and 'STORYBROOKE' is in a large, bold, sans-serif font.

might be next on someone's list Brooke knows she should stay away from the intense detective who looks at her like she's both his salvation and his downfall But when the investigation takes a deadly turn Rory becomes her only protection against a killer who's growing more obsessed by the day Now she must decide whether to trust the man whose obsession matches the killer's intensity or face a predator alone As the case spirals out of control and the killer closes in Rory will discover that sometimes love and obsession are separated by the thinnest of lines and crossing it might be the only way to keep them both alive Get ready for possessive passion heart stopping suspense and a detective whose protective instincts know no boundaries when the woman he loves is threatened One click Obsessed Hope today to discover how far one man will go when love becomes an obsession worth killing for Please Note Previously published as One Taste of Hope by Amanda Siegrist

History and Culture of Haiti NICOLE JEAN-LOUIS, 2012-09-29 My name is Nicole Jean Louis My maiden name is Nicole Faublas I was born in Port au Prince Haiti When I was nine years old my grandfather Luc Beauboeuf inspired me to discover my artistic talent Every sketch I've made was greeted with abundant praises by my grandfather Draw me some more he would say to me Every day after school I would rush to draw more and more for him Then he would help me with my math problems In my early schooling at Sacred Heart my favorite subjects were Math and Drawing As an artist I love to incorporate Geometry and Physics in my drawings as much as I can For example when I paint my landscape I want to align the horizon with the sea level as straight as possible In Haiti we were five siblings growing up Gladys Nicole myself Micheline Edith and Serge Faublas our only brother One day my father Jean Faublas gathered us all to go hiking in a mountain surrounding Port au Prince The mountain's name is Morne de l'Hopital My father told us that we would go to the top where there is a hotel at Boutilier This was a memorable experience We met farmers working on the fields Some farmers build terraces We met women descending the mountain with baskets on their heads loaded of farm products The women wore blue denim dresses with a colorful piece of cloth wrapped around their waist There were naked children playing by their thatch houses At the age of ten it was fascinating for me to see the children's skin and hair of similar color red brown like the soil The air smelled like Haitian soda In the late 1955's era the mountain sides located near Port au Prince were not constructed They were invaded by outsiders as in this modern day era In 1964 my whole family migrated to Zaire Africa to flee from the Duvalier Regime I spent a year in Zaire completing my terminal secondary class Then my father sent me to Hampton Virginia I attended Hampton Institute presently known as Hampton University majoring in Biochemistry I spoke little English The following year I stayed in New York with my older sister Gladys I did not pursue Art in college Instead I choose Science After many intermissions e.g wedding travel birth I finally received a Bachelors in Science degree at Hunter College in 1978 From 1978 to 2007 I worked in Chemistry at different hospitals in the Bronx North Central Bronx Hospital Einstein Jacobi and Montefiore Hospital I painted occasionally for dear friends my sisters and brother my granddaughter Guenett Three 2 Generations painting I also painted for my niece's and nephew's wedding presents and for decors in my new house When I retired in 2007 my husband and I went to live in Jacmel Haiti his hometown Jacmel is a picturesque town by the beaches Its environment inspired me to take my brushes again Painting became my favorite past time From 2007 to 2010 I painted over thirty paintings I embrace all styles landscape personalized portrait every day occurrence folkloric dance history Haiti that I know before the earthquake of January 2010 will be beautiful again I have to display Haiti s panoramic scenery everyday life and its historic events such as Ceremony of Bois Caiman 1791 Mad Dogs chasing fugitive slaves I have to exhibit some of Haiti s heroic figures for example Toussaint Louverture and Jean Jacques Dessalines My book is mostly about visual art Visual art depicts everything that the eyes can see without embellishment Reality is represented faithfully truthfully and accurately Visual art is objectively real My book illustrates Haiti s history and culture through visual art Haiti has a unique and glorious history History is powerful and should be protected Haiti is a country full of resilience Documenting Haitian history and culture through art is my passion It is important to instruct the young so they can make educated judgment by learning from the past I

Gender and Media Tonny Krijnen, Sofie Van Bauwel, 2015-06-19 Why do some TV genres have the label feminine or masculine Why do we worry about boys playing video games too much while girls play just as often Is the TV show Sex and the City empowering or not Why are recent television shows like Desperate Housewives post feminist television Gender and Media explores these and other complex questions by offering a critical overview of the contemporary debates and discussions surrounding gender and mediated communication and by providing student s with an overview of the current academic research on these topics The book is divided into three parts representing producing and consuming with each section made up of three chapters The first chapter of each section attempts to answer the most basic questions Who is represented Who produces what and Who consumes what The second chapter of each section draws attention to the complexity of the relationship between gender and media concentrating on the why The third and final chapter of each section addresses the latest debates in the fields of media and gender adding a vital layer of understanding of the topic at hand This process is aided by text boxes which provide some additional information on the most important concepts and topics and exercises which help bridge the gap between theory and everyday life media practices This will be an ideal textbook for students studying gender and media and for general courses on gender studies sociology cultural studies and women s studies

The Oxford Handbook of Early American Literature Kevin J. Hayes, 2008-02-06 The Oxford Handbook of Early American Literature is a major new reference work that provides the best single volume source of original scholarship on early American literature Comprised of twenty seven chapters written by experts in their fields this work presents an authoritative in depth and up to date assessment of a crucial area within literary studies Organized primarily in terms of genre the chapters include original research on key concepts as well as analysis of interesting texts from throughout colonial America Separate chapters are devoted to literary genres of great importance at the time of their composition that have been neglected in recent decades such as histories promotion literature and scientific writing New interpretations are offered on the works of Benjamin Franklin Jonathan Edwards and Dr Alexander Hamilton while lesser known figures are also brought to light Newly vital areas like print culture and natural history are given full treatment As with other Oxford Handbooks the contributors cover the field in a comprehensive yet accessible way that is suitable for those wishing to gain a good working knowledge of an area of study and where it s headed Utterly Other Discourse Ellen G. Friedman,Richard Martin,1995 The British novelist and critic Christine Brooke Rose born 1923 is increasingly being regarded as one of the most significant writers of the contemporary period In her dozen novels she has explored themes as diverse as biligualism as a metaphor for alienation and the influence of computer technology on the humanities As these themes suggest Brooke Rose is sometimes perceived as a difficult writer especially given the dazzling virtuosity of the linguistic wordplay that enlivens her later novels Utterly Other Discourse a phrase from her 1984 novel Amalgamemnon provides a valuable introduction to her work in fifteen essays some previously published some written for this book scholars from America England and Europe examine her work from a variety of critical angles The Open Shelf ,1919 Country Life Illustrated ,1985-11 Country Life ,1985 The Illustrated London News ,1982 The Library Journal Book Review ,1977 Daily Mail Year Book ,1983
