Osmer, 2008-07-02 Every church congregation encounters challenging situations some the same the world over and others specific to each church Richard Osmer here seeks to teach congregational leaders including but not limited to clergy the requisite knowledge and skills to meet such situations with sensitivity and creativity Osmer develops a framework for practical theological interpretation in congregations by focusing on four key questions What is going on in a given context Why is this going on What ought to be going on and How might the leader shape the context to better embody Christian witness and mission The book is unique in its attention to interdisciplinary issues and the ways that theological reflection is grounded in the spirituality of leaders Useful accessible and lively with lots of specific examples and case studies Osmer's Practical Theology effectively equips congregational leaders to guide their communities with theological integrity The Rites of Christian Initiation Maxwell E. Lutheran Book of Worship 1978 The introduction of the LBW as the standard book in Lutheran worship not only provided North American Lutherans with a new rite for baptism but also new understandings of the meaning of baptism Baptism was suddenly seen as being central to Christian identity rather than merely serving as an infant rite of passage performed occasionally in private It also allowed for full participation of the liturgical assembly and employed a greater use of ritual and gesture Simultaneously the greater stress on baptism was accompanied by an attempt to downplay the theological and liturgical importance of confirmation the centerpiece of Lutheran spiritual formation for those persons baptized in infancy Confirmation was revised as the Affirmation of Baptism allowing it only a secondary role as a part of the original rite of baptism Truscott argues that these changes have affected how North American Lutherans think about and practice Christian initiation He also critically evaluates the LBW rites and makes proposals for the future renewal of Christian initiation in North American Lutheranism
