Paul Hasluck A Life:

Paul Hasluck Geoffrey Bolton, 2014 Sir Paul Hasluck was for almost two and a half decades one of Australia's most prominent politicians Born in Fremantle in 1905 and educated at Perth Modern School and The University of Western Australia Hasluck worked for The West Australian and lectured at The University of Western Australia before moving into politics in 1949 After two decades in politics including a variety of ministerial responsibilities Hasluck was appointed as the 17th Governor General of Australia in 1969 This biography includes Hasluck's experience working for the Department of External Affairs during the Second World War It covers his career as a writer poet historian and politician providing a complete and enthralling portrait of one of Australia's great men Paul Hasluck in Australian History Tom Stannage, Kay Saunders, Richard Nile, 1998 No Marketing Blurb

Australian Dictionary of Biography, Volume 19 Melanie Nolan, 2021-03-09 Volume 19 of the Australian Dictionary of Biography ADB contains concise biographies of individuals who died between 1991 and 1995 The first of two volumes for the 1990s it presents a colourful montage of late twentieth century Australian life containing the biographies of significant and representative Australians The volume is still in the shadow of World War II with servicemen and women who enlisted young appearing but these influences are dimming and there are now increasing numbers of non white non male non privileged and non straight subjects The 680 individuals recorded in volume 19 of the ADB include Wiradjuri midwife and Ngannawal Elder Violet Bulger Aboriginal rights activist poet playwright and artist Kevin Gilbert and Torres Strait Islander community leader and land rights campaigner Eddie Mabo HIV AIDS child activists Tony Lovegrove and Eve Van Graffhorst have entries as does conductor Stuart Challender the first Australian celebrity to go public about his HIV AIDS condition in 1991 The arts are as always well represented including writers Frank Hardy Mary Durack and Nene Gare actors Frank Thring and Leonard Teale and arts patron Ian Potter We are beginning to see the effects of the steep rise in postwar immigration flow through to the ADB Artist Joseph Stanislaw Ostojka Kotkowski was born in Poland Pilar Moreno de Otaegui co founded the Spanish Club of Sydney Chinese restaurateur and community leader Ming Poon Dick Low migrated to Victoria in 1953 Often we have a dearth of information about the domestic lives of our subjects politician Olive Zakharov however bravely disclosed at the Victorian launch of the federal government's campaign to Stop Violence Against Women in 1993 that she was a survivor of domestic violence in her second marriage Take a dip into the many fascinating lives of the Australian Dictionary of Biography International Law in Public Debate

Madelaine Chiam, 2021-12-09 A history of international law in public debates and its resulting popular language of international law Clio's Lives Doug Munro, John G. Reid, 2017-10-09 Including contributions from leading scholars in the field from both Australia and North America this collection explores diverse approaches to writing the lives of historians and ways of assessing the importance of doing so Beginning with the writing of autobiographies by historians the volume then turns to biographical studies both of historians whose writings were in some sense nation defining and those who may be regarded as having had a major influence on defining the discipline of history The final section explores elements of collective biography linking these to the formation of historical networks A concluding essay by Barbara Caine offers a critical appraisal of the study of historians biographies and autobiographies to date and maps out likely new directions for future work Clio's Lives is a very good scholarly collection that advances the study of autobiography and biography within the writing of history itself taking theoretical questions in significant new directions The contributors are well known and highly respected in the history profession and write with an insight and intellectual energy that will ensure the book has considerable impact They examine cutting edge issues about the writing of history at the personal level through autobiography and biography in diverse and innovative ways Together the writers have provided reflective chapters that will be widely read for their impressive theoretical advances as well as being inspirational for new entrants to the disciplinary area Patricia Grimshaw University of Melbourne Clio's Lives brings together a most interesting and varied cast of contributors Its chapters contain sophisticated and well penned ruminations on the uses of biography and autobiography among historians These are clearly connected with the general themes of the volume This delightfully mixed bag makes very good reading and as well will serve as a substantial contribution to the study of the biography and autobiography Eric Richards Flinders University

The Seven Dwarfs and the Age of the Mandarins Samuel Furphy, 2015-07-06 In the history and folklore of Australia's Commonwealth Public Service the idea of the Seven Dwarfs has been remarkably persistent Originally a witty epithet applied to a powerful group of senior public servants the term has come to represent the professionalisation of Australian government administration during the Second World War and post war reconstruction era and into the following two decades of expansion This was a period when for the first time talented university graduates entered the public service rose to senior levels and exerted great influence over the affairs of the Commonwealth With the secure tenure of being permanent heads of departments they defined the age of the public service mandarin This book explores the lives and influence of the Seven Dwarfs and their colleagues bringing together the leading researchers on post war Australian administration Featuring four thematic chapters and ten biographical portraits it offers a fascinating insight into the workings of the Commonwealth Public Service during a critical period in its history The Veiled Sceptre Anne Twomey, 2018-04-12 The extension to other Realms of the reserve power to refuse a dissolution Ministers, Mandarins And Diplomats Joan Beaumont, Christopher Waters, David Lowe, 2013-06-14 In the three decades from the beginning of World War II Australia emerged on the world stage as an independent actor in foreign affairs The key institution overseeing the development of Australia's international status and foreign policy during that period was the Department of External Affairs This stimulating collection of essays explores the history of this government department as it grew from being a small amateur bureaucratic player to become a professional global network This book sheds new light on the major figures in Australian international history H V Doc Evatt Percy Spender Richard Casey Garfield Barwick and Paul Hasluck and their relationships with their senior bureaucratic advisers The experiences of Australian diplomats as they joined the Department of External Affairs as junior recruits and worked overseas are also examined Ministers Mandarins and Diplomats tells the story of the people the events and the ideas that shaped Australian foreign policy and gave Australia its identity in the eyes of the rest of the world Preparing a Nation? Brad Underhill, 2024-08-22

Preparing a Nation based on extensive archival research addresses perennial questions of Australian colonialism in Papua New Guinea To what extent did Australia prepare Papua New Guinea for independence And what were the policies and the ideologies behind colonial development implemented after World War II A key innovation of this book is to take these questions from policy desks in Canberra and Port Moresby to the villages of four administrative areas Chimbu Milne Bay Sepik and New Hanover How successful were Australian colonial planners in designing and implementing programs that could ameliorate the potential harm of market capitalism and develop new socioeconomic structures that would combine a disparate people into an imagined community capable of becoming an independent nation state in the far distant future Colonial intention is contrasted with Indigenous experience Bradley Underhill explores an Australian governmental tendency to prioritise colonial control over Indigenous autonomy in circumstances where subjugated people do not necessarily fit within an expected narrative of compliant or westernised native I expect it will become the standard reference for its subject which covers a pivotal aspect of Australia's colonial administration Bill Gammage Commonwealth Responsibility and Cold War Solidarity Dan

Halvorson, 2019-01-01 Australia's engagement with Asia from 1944 until the late 1960s was based on a sense of responsibility to the United Kingdom and its Southeast Asian colonies as they navigated a turbulent independence into the British Commonwealth The circumstances of the early Cold War decades also provided for a mutual sense of solidarity with the non communist states of East Asia with which Australia mostly enjoyed close relationships From 1967 into the early 1970s however Commonwealth Responsibility and Cold War Solidarity demonstrates that the framework for this deep Australian engagement with its region was progressively eroded by a series of compounding external factors the 1967 formation of ASEAN and its consolidation by the mid 1970s as the premier regional organisation surpassing the Asian and Pacific Council ASPAC Britain's withdrawal from East of Suez Washington's de escalation and gradual withdrawal from Vietnam after March 1968 the 1969 Nixon doctrine that America's Asia Pacific allies must take up more of the burden of providing for their own security and US rapprochement with China in 1972 The book shows that these profound changes marked the start of Australia's political distancing from the region during the 1970s despite the intentions efforts and policies of governments from Whitlam onwards to foster deeper engagement By 1974 Australia had been pushed to the margins of the region with its engagement premised on a broadening but shallower transactional basis Aborigines & Activism Jennifer Clark, 2008 In a provocative reappraisal of the 1960s Aborigines Activism recontextualises the history of Aboriginal activism within wider international movements Concurrent to anti war protests women's movements burgeoning civil rights activism in the United States and the struggles of South Africa's anti-apartheid freedom fighters dramatic political changes took place in assimilated Australia that challenged its status quo From the early days of grassroots resistance through to Charles Perkins 1965 Freedom Ride the 1967 Referendum Canberra's Tent Embassy and beyond this is the story of the Great Southern Land's racial awakening a time when Aborigines and their white supporters achieved paradigmatic shifts in the search for equality justice and human dignity that still has powerful implications for 21st century Australia This is an engaging study of the stories of racial awakening in Australia that marked the coming of the wind of change Through rigorous research the author shows how supporters of Indigenous Australians and their struggles for equality pushed Australia into the 60s literally and figuratively The book also puts the Australian experience of the 60s into an international perspective portrayed as unique but not in isolation Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal, 1895

The Crown and Constitutional Reform Cris Shore, Sally Raudon, David V Williams, 2020-09-10 The Crown and Constitutional Reform is an innovative interdisciplinary exchange between experts in law anthropology and politics about the Crown constitutional monarchy and the potential for constitutional reform in Commonwealth common law countries The constitutional foundation of many Commonwealth countries is the Crown an icon of ultimate authority at once familiar yet curiously enigmatic Is it a conceptual placeholder for the state a symbol of sovereignty or does its ambiguity make it a shapeshifter a legal fiction that can be deployed as an expedient mask for executive power and convenient instrument for undermining democratic accountability This volume offers a novel interdisciplinary exchange the contributors analyse how the Crown operates in the United Kingdom and the postcolonial settler societies of Canada Australia and New Zealand In doing so they examine fundamental theoretical questions about statehood sovereignty constitutionalism and postcolonial reconciliation As Queen Elizabeth II's long reign approaches its end questions about the Crown's future its changing forms and meanings the continuing value of constitutional monarchy and its potential for reform gain fresh urgency The chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue of The Round Table The Commonwealth Journal of International Affairs The Historiography of Genocide Anton Weiss-Wendt, Robert Krieken, Alfred A. Cave, Ben Kiernan, Doris Bergen, David Moshman, Victoria Sanford, John Docker, Robert Hitchcock, 2008-02-13 The Historiography of Genocide is an indispensable guide to the development of the emerging discipline of genocide studies and the only available assessment of the historical literature pertaining to genocides

Robert Menzies, A Life A. W. Martin, 1999-11-15 For each new generation of Australians the name Robert Gordon Menzies resounds across the political landscape No other federal politician this century can match his record period as Prime Minister from 1949 to 1966 Not one of us is untouched by his life and work This long awaited second volume of Allan Martin's unrivalled biography describes and analyses the flowering of policies and practices foretold in the first Beginning with the birth of the Liberal Party at the end of World War II it is the first detailed study of Menzies' climb to power and of his post-war strategies for the country and the world It ends with his death in 1978 mourned by many as an irreplaceable leader and father figure The tumultuous years of the 1950s were echoed in Menzies own life His political acumen built on universal Cold War fears and his anti communist campaigns brought him into bitter conflict with H V Evatt Menzies frequent trips to the United States and Great Britain usually by sea and invariably in time for the Test cricket fuelled accusations of absenteeism Menzies lifelong devotion to all things British most notably the monarchy was rewarded towards the end of his life by investiture as a Knight of the Thistle and by his succeeding Winston Churchill as Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports The personal pleasure derived from his growing international stature cushioned to some degree his fall from power in domestic politics This volume completes a monumental contribution to Australian political biography For both scholars and ordinary Australians Allan Martin has sought to chronicle Menzies life and to judge what kind of a man he was and what sort of prime ministerial life he led

Life's a Hoot James Harwood, John J. Coe, 2004      Knowledge, 1887      Knowledge & Illustrated Scientific News, 1887      Genocide and Settler Society A. Dirk Moses, 2005-03-01 Colonial Genocide has been seen increasingly as a stepping stone to the European genocides of the twentieth century yet it remains an under researched phenomenon This volume reconstructs instances of Australian genocide and for the first time places them in a global context Beginning with the arrival of the British in 1788 and extending to the 1960s the authors identify the moments of radicalization and the escalation of British violence and ethnic engineering aimed at the Indigenous populations while carefully distinguishing between local massacres cultural genocide and genocide itself These essays reflect a growing concern with the nature of settler society in Australia and in particular with the fate of the tens of thousands of children who were forcibly taken away from their Aboriginal families by state agencies Long considered a relatively peaceful settlement Australian society contained many of the pathologies that led to the exterminatory and eugenic policies of twentieth century Europe

Obligated to be Difficult Tim Rowse, 2000-04-03 Since the 1967 constitutional referendum Australian governments have moved towards policies of indigenous self determination Obligated to be Difficult first published in 2000 presents the central issue of self determination as seen by Dr H C Coombs the most important policy maker since the referendum through what political mechanisms will indigenous Australians find their own voice Coombs was singularly influential within government in the years 1967 to 1976 and he remained a tireless critic and policy advocate from 1977 to 1996 Rowse s narrative of his work drawing on many unpublished sources illuminates the interplay of government policy with indigenous practice This book is both an account of government policies and a biographical slice of an outstanding Australian In attempting a critical celebration of Coombs vision and methods it invites informed reflection on the issues of land rights sovereignty and reconciliation in these conservative and highly anxious times
