World Carrie L. Ruiz, Elena Rodríguez-Guridi, 2022-01-14 Seafaring activity for trade and travel was dominant throughout the Spanish Empire and in the worldview and imagination of its inhabitants the specter of shipwreck loomed large Shipwreck in the Early Modern Hispanic World probes this preoccupation by examining portrayals of nautical disasters in sixteenth and seventeenth century Spanish literature and culture The essays collected here showcase shipwreck's symbolic deployment to question colonial expansion and transoceanic trade to critique the Christian enterprise overseas to signal the collapse of dominant social order and to relay moral messages and represent socio political debates The contributors find examples in poetry theater narrative fiction and other print artifacts and approach the topic variously through the lens of historical literary and cultural studies Ultimately demonstrating how shipwrecks both shaped and destabilized perceptions of the Spanish Empire worldwide this analytically rich volume is the first in Hispanic studies to investigate the darker side of mercantile and imperial expansion through maritime disaster

Status of NGOs in International Humanitarian Law Claudie Barrat, 2014-07-24 In Status of NGOs in International Humanitarian Law Claudie Barrat examines the legal framework applicable to NGOs in situations of armed conflict The author convincingly demonstrates contrary to convention that in addition to the ICRC the National Societies and the IFRC numerous other NGOs referenced in humanitarian law treaties have a legal status in IHL and therefore legitimate claim to employ IHL provisions to respond to current challenges On the basis of clear and thorough definitions of these entities Barrat argues that existing

NGOs meeting stringent definition can benefit from customary rights and obligations in both international and non international armed conflict
