Payback for Revenge Alex Markman,2022-05-03 What sacrifice is too big for all consuming love What is revenge worth Are there psychological and moral boundaries beyond which passion does not dare to step Chantal a woman with irresistible charms was a clear minded very successful journalist when at the age of 28 she married a financial tycoon who convinced her to try a different lifestyle Jovan the 42 years old surgeon from Yugoslavia an extraordinary man both in appearance and in substance considered his life a journey to wisdom to discoveries of life s meaning and purpose This journey came to an abrupt end when his daughter a 14 years old beauty was abducted and killed in a small town in

Montenegro in 1995 while the civil war in Yugoslavia was still in full swing From this moment on revenge became the purpose of his life the obsession the only justification for his existence At this crossroad by a sheer chance he met Chantal in New York they fell in love with each other Chantal had to make a terrible choice leave her loving husband and life of luxury and go after Jovan and her mission in life journalism or stay in comfort and lose her first genuine love and mission Her hesitation was painful but short Finding killers was a demanding task for Jovan Police closed the case claiming that hostile Croats abducted his daughter Lilia The only witness though who later refused to testify said that he saw how local pimps grabbed the girl on the street and ran away in a car Both versions lacked credibility as the autopsy concluded that the girl was a virgin Soon Chantal discovered something not less horrendous than the war and no less important to report about the East European prostitution ring which used Yugoslavia as a hub for trafficking adolescent girls from Russia Ukraine and Romania to the affluent West European countries and North America Again she witnessed terrifying events when innocent and helpless girls had to go through hell during their short and horrific lives Jovan discovered the secrets of his daughter's death and found the killers The revenge was as brutal as the crime which triggered it The vengeance and the payback for it ruined Chantal's and Jovan's love and changed their lives forever

Payback David P. Barash,Judith Eve Lipton,2011-02-01 From the child taunted by her playmates to the office worker who feels stifled in his daily routine people frequently take out their pain and anger on others even those who had nothing to do with the original stress The bullied child may kick her puppy the stifled worker yells at his children Payback can be directed anywhere sometimes at inanimate things animals or other people In Payback the husband and wife team of evolutionary biologist David Barash and psychiatrist Judith Lipton offer an illuminating look at this phenomenon showing how it has evolved why it occurs and what we can do about it Retaliation and revenge are well known to most people We all know what it is like to want to get even get justice or take revenge What is new in this book is an extended discussion of redirected aggression which occurs not only in people but other species as well The authors reveal that it's not just a matter of yelling at your spouse because your boss yells at you Indeed the phenomenon of redirected aggression so called to differentiate it from retaliation and revenge the other main forms of payback haunts our criminal courts our streets our battlefields our homes and our hearts It lurks behind some of the nastiest and seemingly inexplicable things that otherwise decent people do from road rage to yelling at a crying baby And it exists across boundaries of every kind culture time geography and even species Indeed it s not just a human phenomenon Passing pain to others can be seen in birds and horses fish and primates in virtually all vertebrates It turns out that there is robust neurobiological hardware and software promoting redirected aggression as well as evolutionary underpinnings Payback may be natural the authors conclude but we are capable of rising above it without sacrificing self esteem and social status They show how the various human responses to pain and suffering can be managed mindfully carefully and humanely

Payback Geoff Palmer,2016 The third largest criminal enterprise in the world One woman plans to stop it Solikha Duong a carefree village girl in northern Cambodia has her world torn apart by truck men from the south But Solikha is tough resourceful and won t give up without a fight Alice Kwann on vacation in northern Nevada is attacked by thugs But Alice too is tough resourceful and won t give up without a fight What binds these women is a shocking secret and a desire for revenge What readers are saying Payback is a genuine up all night got to see what happens next thriller that grabs you from the first page and doesn t let go until the last Days after finishing Payback I am still blown away Terrific read One of the best books from this past year Palmer is such a bloody good writer I highly recommend this book You will be hard pressed to lay this book down once you start Author is superb in holding the reader s interest Main character is a SUPERSTAR Do not miss this book Buy Payback today Because sometimes your past won t let you go
