

Graduation Welcome Speech – June 2010

It is my pleasure to welcome families, friends, teachers, and our younger students to graduation day at Wilmington Montessori School.

Earlier this morning, I spoke to you and your families at breakfast. Now, I speak to you as the graduates. I don't know if you all have noticed, but there has been an air of excitement in the halls of Wilmington Montessori for the past week – an excitement that began to peak yesterday when your posters went up in the lobby, graduation practice began, we had our last all school assembly and we all began to listen to Kelly practicing the music for today in the gym. There is excitement in the air and it is all about each of you. This entire school community – your teachers, your parents, grandparents, Aunts and Uncles, and brothers and sisters are so very proud of you today.

I would like to thank each of you for all you have brought to WMS during your time here, many of you since you were only a year or so old. You have brought energy to the school with the

Hudson's Private Theatricals for Home Performance Francis Hudson,1870 Congressional Record United States. Congress,2017-06-28 Resources in Education ,2001 Parents and Families of Students With Special Needs Vicki A. McGinley,Melina Alexander,SAGE Publications, Inc.,2017-01-05 Parents and Families of Students With Special Needs Collaborating Across the Age Span teaches students the skills they need to effectively collaborate with parents and families to ensure a child s success in the classroom The text takes a lifespan approach with a special emphasis on the critical transition points in a child s life Information is provided on what can be seen at each stage of an individual with disabilities development and addresses the concerns and needs that families may have during these unique phases of growth The authors provide an in depth discussion of how parents and families are affected by particular disabilities family system theory the laws that affect individuals with disabilities and assessments for individuals with disabilities Chapters written by academics and professionals who are also parents of students with special needs bring a diverse range of voices into the narrative Don't Blame the Messenger Lee Kronert,2012-10-15 The public education system in New York is in turmoil Is this because of leadership in Albany the No Child Left Behind Act parents who fail in their effort to raise children properly or is it just the fault of kids who show little to no respect for authority peers or themselves Or should we accept the most popular place of blame The teacher is the problem The former world where teachers were revered looked up to by children and parents and respected because of the crucial role they played is all but a forgotten memory Today parents and school administrators often demonize teachers and are openly critical of the tenure system which protects their positions seemingly forever Riverton School District has lots of issues There is rampant bullying and peer intimidation Some kids are even afraid to come to school The disrespect and outrageous behavior runs not only unchecked but leadership in Albany wants to see even less discipline and consequences for the young perpetrators Brendan Moss teaches eighth grade math at Riverton As a widower and devoted father of three he does his best to assist young people but the school superintendent wants to use the veteran math teacher as a test case to overturn the right to lifetime tenure Dont Blame the Messenger addresses school policies State Department of Education leadership bullying and why a teachers tenure should be maintained and viewed as something good for kids and the process of learning The author works in the trenches where truth and reality collide Opinions on what is wrong with public education vary Dont Blame the Messenger is written by a teacher who knows how it really is

THE SUNDAY AT HOME ,1879 Breaking Bad and Philosophy David R. Koepsell,Robert Arp,2012-06-20

Breaking Bad hailed by Stephen King Chuck Klosterman and many others as the best of all TV dramas tells the story of a man whose life changes because of the medical death sentence of an advanced cancer diagnosis The show depicts his metamorphosis from inoffensive chemistry teacher to feared drug lord and remorseless killer Driven at first by the desire to save his family from destitution he risks losing his family altogether because of his new life of crime In defiance of the tradition that viewers demand a TV character who never changes Breaking Bad is all about the process of change with each scene carrying forward the morphing of Walter White into the terrible Heisenberg Can a person be transformed as the result of a few key life choices Does everyone have the potential to be a ruthless criminal How will we respond to the knowledge that we will be dead in six months Is human life subject to laws as remorseless as chemical equations When does injustice validate brutal retaliation Why are drug addicts unsuitable for operating the illegal drug business How can TV viewers remain loyal to a series where the hero becomes the villain Does Heisenberg s Principle of Uncertainty rule our destinies In Breaking Bad and Philosophy a hand picked squad of professional thinkers investigate the crimes of Walter White showing how this story relates to the major themes of philosophy and the major life decisions facing all of us
