- The auto off light starts blinking red to let you know that the iron has stopped heating.
- As soon as you pick up the iron, it will start heating again. Wait for iron to reheat completely before resuming operation.

SURGE OF STEAM

- For horizontal steam surge: Be sure water window is filled to the MAX line. For optimum performance of steam surge with any steam setting, turn the dial to the desired steam setting, then let the iron stand on its heel rest for 60 seconds before pressing the steam surge button (5). For tough wrinkles, turn the temperature dial to the highest setting and pump the steam surge button a few times for a blast of concentrated steam. For best performance, use steam surge at 5 second intervals.
