Gunn,2021-09-03 Imagined Geographies is a pioneering work in the study of history and geography of the pre 1800 world In this book Gunn argues that different regions astride the maritime silk roads were not only interconnected but can also be construed as imagined geographies Taking a grand civilizational perspective five such geographic imaginaries are examined across respective chapters namely Indian Arabic Chinese Japanese and European including an imagined Great South Land Drawing upon an array of marine and other archaeological examples the author offers compelling evidence of the intertwining of political cultural and economic regions across the sea silk roads from ancient times until the seventeenth century Through a thorough analysis of these five geographic imaginaries the author sets aside purely national history and looks at the maritime realm from a broader spatial perspective He challenges the Eurocentric concept of center and periphery and establishes a revisionist view on a decentered world regional history This book will definitely interest history lovers from all around the world who wants to know more about how their forebears viewed their respective region and how their region fits into world history with local uniqueness Gunn takes large themes and makes them understandable He is not afraid to make the grand statement and to look at the sweep of history all in one arc I admire that greatly this is not history for the faint of heart But it is history well done and history that can show the forest from the trees Eric Tagliacozzo John Stambaugh Professor of History Cornell University This is one of the most ambitious and insightful books that I have read on pre Modern maritime Asia The author offers fascinating perspectives on how this vast region was imagined charted and experienced over many centuries That requires mastery of an immense range of scholarship and primary sources His aim is to knit this watery world together into a conceptual whole This mission is accomplished with style and discipline Andrew R Wilson John A van Beuren Chair of Asia Pacific Studies U S Naval War College Talking with Your Daughter About
