Maguire,2021-04-15 The Rowman Littlefield Handbook of Policing Communication and Society brings together well regarded academics and experienced practitioners to explore how communication intersects with policing in areas such as cop culture race and ethnicity terrorism and hate crimes social media police reform crowd violence and many more By combining research and theory in criminology psychology and communication this handbook provides a foundation for identifying and understanding many of the issues that challenge police and the public in today s society It is an important and comprehensive analysis of the enormous changes in the roles of gender in society digital technology social media and organizational structures have impacted policing and public perceptions about law enforcement The Policing Web Jean-Paul Brodeur,2010-09-30 In this comprehensive study Jean Paul Brodeur examines the diversity of the policing web Policing agencies such as criminal investigation units intelligence services private security companies and military policing organizations are examined in addition to public uniformed police to show the extent to which policing extends far beyond the confines of public police working in uniform and visible to all The study also includes a consideration of military policing both when compatible with the values of democracy and when in opposition It also examines criminal organizations enforcing their own rules in urban zones deserted by the police and criminal individuals acting as police informants since they too are part of the policing web even though they do not qualify as legitimate policing agents or agencies The underlying argument of The Policing Web is that the diverse strands of the policing web are united by a common definition that emphasizes the licence granted to policing agencies to use either legally or with complete impunity means that are otherwise prohibited as crimes to the rest of the population This claim is argued for throughout the book and its paradoxical consequences investigated Although much effort is devoted to presenting a comprehensive model linking all the components of policing it is acknowledged that the policing web is by no means a neat and well integrated structure Even the belief that it will develop into a tightly coordinated system is in itself questionable Indeed the study shows that there is not just one policing web but several depending on the country police history and culture and the images of policing which shape the mind of the community These often overlooked factors are nonetheless essential components of the context of policing and are discussed within an international framework The Academy ,1894
