Parallel Text French Short Stories Nouvelles Francaises:

French short stories Simon Lee,1966      Parallel Text: French Short Stories Various Authors,1992-07-30 These eight stories by leading 20th century French writers offer fascinating insights into French life and literature and are accompanied by a parallel English text making them valuable for both French and English language students Among the diverse and entertaining stories in the collection are the wistful masterpiece Green Tobacco by Clair Sainte Soline the exuberant tale of The Ants by the post war king of caf society Boris Vian and a suspense in the nineteenth century erotic tradition from Andre de Mandiargues      Language Typology Alice Caffarel,J. R. Martin,Christian M. I. M. Matthiessen,2004 This book is intended as a systemic functional contribution to language typology both for those who would like to understand and describe particular languages against the background of generalizations about a wide range of languages and also for those who would like to develop typological accounts that are based on and embody descriptions of the systems of particular languages rather than isolated constructions The book is a unique contribution in at least two respects On the one hand it is the first book based on systemic functional theory that is specifically concerned with language typology On the other hand the book combines the particular with the general in the description of languages it presents comparable sketches of particular languages while at the same time identifying generalizations based on the languages described here as well as on other languages The volume explores eight languages covering seven language families French German Pitjantjatjara Tagalog Telugu Vietnamese Chinese and Japanese      French Short Stories, Volume 2 / Nouvelles Françaises Tome 2 Simon Lee,1972 Collection of eight short stories representative of 20th century French writing      French Short Stories Pamela Lyon,Simon Lee,1966 Collection of eight short stories representative of 20th century French writing      Short Stories in Japanese Michael Emmerich,2011-05-31 A dual language edition of Japanese stories many appearing in English for the first time This volume of eight short stories with parallel translations offers students at all levels the opportunity to enjoy a wide range of contemporary literature without having constantly to refer back to a dictionary The stories many of which appear here in English for the first time are by well known writers like Haruki Murakami and Banana Yoshimoto as well as emerging voices like Abe Kazushige Ishii Shinji and Kawakami Hiromi From the orthodox to the cutting edge they represent a range of styles and themes showcasing the diversity of Japanese fiction over the past few decades in a collection that is equally rewarding for beginning intermediate and advanced students of English or Japanese Complete with notes the stories make excellent reading in either language      Paris Metro Tales Helen Constantine,2011-03-24 Following on from Helen Constantine's hugely successful Paris Tales the twenty two short stories included in More Metro Tales take the reader on an fascinating journey around Paris by metro The journey begins at the Gare du Nord stops at twenty underground stations along the way and ends at Lamarck Caulaincourt Some of these stories actually take place in the metro itself but most are to be found when you emerge above ground They range from the 15th century account of the miraculous Saint Genevieve patron saint of Paris through tales by favourite writers such as Zola Simenon and Maupassant to Martine Delerm's evocation of the last hours of Modigliani's mistress Jeanne H buterne G rard de Nerval evokes the thriving bustling market in Les Halles in the 1850s Colette recounts her involvement in a traffic accident near the Op ra Boulanger describes a blackly funny experience in P re Lachaise Each story is illustrated with a black and white photograph and there is a map and suggested itinerary round the metro system Readers will find familiar and unfamiliar writers here but all are masterly writers of the short story and each evokes a different aspect of this endlessly intriguing and much loved city whether the traveller is on the metro or at home sitting in an armchair

Nouvelles en français Richard Coward,1999 This is an all new version of the popular PARALLEL TEXT series containing eight pieces of contemporary fiction in the original French and in English translation Including stories by Bolanger Cotnoir Le Clezio and Germain this volume gives a fascinating insight into French culture and literature as well as providing an invaluable educational tool

Paris Tales ,2004-09-09 Paris Tales is a highly evocative collection of stories by French and Francophone writers who have been inspired by specific locations in this most visited of capital cities The twenty two stories by well known writers including Nerval Maupassant Colette and Echenoz provide a captivating glimpse into Parisian life from the mid nineteenth century to the present day The stories take us on an atmospheric tour of the arrondissements and quartiers of Paris charting the changing nature of the city and its inhabitants and viewing it through the eyes of characters such as the provincial lawyer's wife seeking excitement a runaway schoolboy sleeping rough and a lottery winning policeman From the artists haunts of Montmartre to the glamorous caf s of Saint Germain from the shouts of demonstrators on Boul Mich to the tranquillity of Parc Monceau Paris Tales offers a fascinating literary panorama of Paris Illustrated with maps and striking photographs the book will appeal to all those who wish to uncover the true heart of this seductive city

Literary Fiction Geir Farnen,2014-01-30 Insofar as literary theory has addressed the issue of literature as a means of communication and the function of literary fiction opinions have been sharply divided indicating that the elementary foundations of literary theory and criticism still need clarifying Many of the classical problems that literary theory has been grappling with from Aristotle to our time are still waiting for a satisfactory solution Based on a new cognitive model of literature as communication Farnen systematically explains how literary fiction works providing new solutions to a wide range of literary issues like intention function evaluation delimitation of the literary work as such fictionality suspense and the roles of author and narrator along with such narratological problems as voice point of view and duration Covering a wide range of literary issues central to literary theory offering new theories while also summarising the field as it stands Literary Fiction will be a valuable guide and resource for students and scholars of the theory of literature

The Nouveau Roman and Writing in Britain After Modernism Adam Guy,2019 This volume explores the influence of the avant garde French novel form known as Nouveau Roman on experimental prose fiction and post war literary culture in Britain

Short French Fiction John Flower,1998 This volume provides new insights into some of the best examples of this form of writing in the twentieth century and also includes a chapter which explores ways in which the genre is evolving as the century draws to a close     The Penguin Book of German Stories Francis John Lamport,1974     Short Stories in Spanish ,1968

Storytelling in Sixteenth-Century France Emily E. Thompson,2022-01-14 Storytelling in Sixteenth Century France is an innovative interdisciplinary examination of parallels between the early modern era and the world in which we live today Readers are invited to look to the past to see how then as now people turned to storytelling to integrate and adapt to rapid social change to reinforce or restructure community to sell new ideas and to refashion the past This collection explores different modalities of storytelling in sixteenth century France and emphasizes shared techniques and themes rather than attempting to define narrow kinds of narrative categories Through studies of storytelling in tapestries stone and music as well as distinct genres of historical professional and literary writing addressing both erudite and more common readers the contributors to this collection evoke a society in transition wherein traditional techniques and materials were manipulated to express new realities Published by the University of Delaware Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press

The Dynamics of Gender in Early Modern France Domna C. Stanton,2016-03-23 In its six case studies The Dynamics of Gender in Early Modern France works out a model for early modern gender which is articulated in the introduction The book comprises essays on the construction of women three in texts by male and three by female writers including Racine Fnelon Poulain de la Barre in the first part La Guette La Fayette and S vign in the second These studies thus also take up different genres satire tragedy and treatise memoir novella and letter writing Since gender is a relational construct each chapter considers as well specific textual and contextual representations of men In every instance Stanton looks for signs of conformity to and deviations from normative gender scripts The Dynamics of Gender adds a new dimension to early modern French literary and cultural studies it incorporates a dynamic shifting theory of gender and it engages both contemporary critical theory and literary historical readings of primary texts and established concepts in the field This book emphasizes the central importance of historical context and close reading from a feminist perspective which it also interrogates as a practice The Afterword examines some of the meanings of reading as a feminist     Medieval France William W. Kibler,1995 Arranged alphabetically with a brief introduction that clearly defines the scope and purpose of the book Illustrations include maps B W photographs genealogical tables and lists of architectural terms     □□□□□□□□ ,1973     Modern Language Notes ,1889     The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1972
