Progress Report Parent Letter Template

[Date]

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Enclosed is your student's latest progress report, which includes updates on their current strengths, challenges, and overall development. This report is intended to help you better understand your student's performance in between formal report cards. While the information here isn't entered into your student's permanent record as official grades, it does provide valuable insights that can help them stay on track throughout the school year.

[We] hope you'll take time to review this informal report both on your own and with your student; here are a few guided suggestions for discussing it together:

- Note any areas where they're doing particularly well. Ask them to share with you their proudest recent achievements with you. It's important to celebrate successes, both big and small.

(Optional) Current Areas of Excellence

- In some areas, your student may demonstrate lower achievement than expected. By taking the time to talk about these areas together, you can identify ways to help them improve their performance. Work together to set achievable goals and find creative approaches to challenges, while encouraging a growth mindset. Remind them that it's not a case of "I can't do it," but of "I can't do it yet."

(Optional) Current Opportunities for Improvement

and their teachers don't agree about their progress. Encourage them to talk to their teachers themselves if they have any questions before reaching out on their behalf.

(Optional) After reviewing this progress report, please acknowledge you've received it by [signing and returning/other method] no later than [date].

If you have additional questions about this progress report after discussing it with your student, [we] encourage you to get in touch by:

- Call or text [phone number]
- Email [email address]
- [Other contact method]

Thank you for your ongoing support and involvement in your student's education.

Sincerely,
