Day, 2024-03-15 How do we hear our prayers In the words of philosopher Gemma Corradi Fiumara there can be no saying without hearing no speaking which is not an integral part of listening no speech which is not somehow received Therefore hearing should be considered an essential aspect of participation in Christian worship However although almost all studies of Christian worship attend to the words spoken and sung almost none consider how worshippers hear in the liturgical event In Hearing Our Prayers Juliette Day draws upon insights from liturgical studies philosophy psychology acoustical science and architectural studies to investigate how acts of audition occur in Christian worship The book discusses the different listening strategies worshippers use for speech chant and music as well as for silence and noise why paying attention in church can be so difficult and how what we hear is affected by the buildings in which worship takes place Day concludes by identifying liturgical listening as a particular type of ritual participation and emphasizes that liturgical listening is foundational for the way in which we pray and think about God the church and the world Praying Shapes Believing

Leonel L. Mitchell, 2016-08 2015 marks the 30th anniversary of Lee Mitchell's great standard work on the 1979 Book of Common Prayer As his student proting e and colleague Ruth Meyers takes this classic work and updates it for the Church in its current era and for the future Prayers of the Eucharist R.C.D. Jasper, G.J. Cuming, 2018-11-27 This classic work previously edited by Ronald Jasper and Geoffrey Cuming has been a staple source in teaching liturgy to generations of students in colleges seminaries and universities It has now been comprehensively revised for future generations of liturgical scholars Updates include New introductions that take into account the substantial changes in recent scholarshipNew groupings of the various prayers into liturgical families in order to make their relationships clearerPlus new bibliographies

The Daily Mass Readings 2015, 2014-02-02 Nothing provided The Almanac for Pastoral Liturgy Sourcebook From Advent to Harvest Mark Geldard, 2014-08-21 Busy clergy and worship leaders will Joseph DeGrocco, 2013 appreciate this dip in collection of tried and tested creative material to enliven services throughout the Church year Material includes Reflective readings with visuals and music for Christmas and Epiphany A meditative Good Friday service An Easter Day vigil A reflection for Pentecost A twenty first century celebration of Harvest Humorous drama sketches on the teachings of Jesus and fair trade issues From the Shores of Silence Ashley Cocksworth, Rachel Starr, Stephen Burns, 2023-01-31 Feminist practical theology has emerged in the gap between wider feminist and wider practical theology It celebrates distinctive concerns arguments emphases and questions unafraid to reform practical theology in shape and substance and to guide feminist theology towards the silences and stories of human lives that some professional theologies including those shaped by feminist commitments sometimes overlooks Feminist practical theology is bold in exploration of doctrinal themes in poetic and prayerful modes characteristically collaborative and in search of alliances with other advocacy perspectives In the UK such commitments have been exemplified by Nicola Slee whom this volume honours Chapters invite readers into wide ranging conversations that flow from young women s experiences at university poetic practice as theology queer priesthood theologies of critical masculinities women presiding in worship Black and decolonial theologies adjacent to feminist convictions confrontations with sexual violence rest and rewilding and a post menopausal Mary Contributors are Al Barrett Gavin D Costa Deborah Kahn Harris Michael N Jagessar Sharon Jagger Rachel Mann Jenny Morgans Eleanor Nesbitt Karen O Donnell Mark Pryce Anthony G Reddie Ruth Shelton Anne Phillips and Alison Wooley Lively Oracles of God Gordon Jeanes, Bridget Nichols, 2022-02-15 This book reexamines what we often take for granted how Scripture is presented to worshipers how it is heard especially by those with little experience of the life of the church Scripture's role in mediating the great narratives of incarnation and redemption at the high points of the year where Scripture meets people in ritual transition how the Bible itself provides the language of much public prayer Contributors also consider how the relationship between Scripture and liturgy is tested by new priorities the climate crisis the inclusion and protection of children the recognition and honoring of those who find themselves on the margins of the church and the significance of gender and identity in all areas of the church's life This book does not offer definitive statements It is an invitation to a wide audience to engage in new conversations with their practice of worship Reflections of a Roaming Catholic Anthony C. E. Quainton, 2014-12-20 This short collection of essays contains the occasional reflections of a Christian raised in both the Roman and Anglican traditions They were given at the Tuesday morning Eucharist at St Albans Episcopal parish in Washington D C As part of that gathering members take turns to share their thoughts on the readings of the day the significance of the liturgical season or the challenges of the secular world around us These reflections do not pretend to be either theologically profound or traditionally orthodox Rather they are the personal reflections of the author a self proclaimed Roaming Catholic whose familial and spiritual journey has joyfully passed through both the Roman and Anglican traditions Partners of Zaynab Diane D'Souza, 2014-09-03 How do pious Shia Muslim women nurture and sustain their religious lives How do their experiences and beliefs differ from or overlap with those of men What do gender based religious roles and interactions reveal about the Shia Muslim faith In Partners of Zaynab Diane D Souza presents a rich ethnography of urban Shia women in India exploring women s devotional lives through the lens of religious narrative sacred space ritual performance leadership and iconic symbols Religious scholars have tended to devalue women s religious expressions confining them to the periphery of a male centered ritual world This viewpoint often assumes that women s ritual behaviors are the unsophisticated product of limited education and experience and even a less developed female nature By illuminating vibrant female narratives within Shia religious teachings the fascinating history of a shrine led by women the contemporary lives of dynamic female preachers and women's popular prayers and rituals of petition Partners of Zaynab demonstrates that the religious lives of women are not a flawed approximation of male defined norms and behaviors but a vigorous authentic affirmation of faith within the religious mainstream D Souza questions the distinction between normative and popular religious behavior arguing that such a categorization not only isolates and devalues female ritual expressions but also weakens our understanding of religion as a whole Partners of Zaynab offers a compelling glimpse of Muslim faith and practice and a more complete understanding of the interplay of gender within Shia Islam The Pilgrimage of Egeria Anne McGowan, Paul F. Bradshaw, 2018-06-01 This new version of the late fourth century diary of journeys in and around the Holy Land known as the Itinerarium Egeriae provides a more literal translation of the Latin text than earlier English renderings with the aim of revealing more of the female traveler's personality. The substantial introduction to the book covers both early pilgrimage as a whole especially travel by women and the many liturgical rites of Jerusalem that Egeria describes Both this and the verse by verse commentary alongside the translated text draw on the most recent scholarship making this essential reading for pilgrims students and scholars seeking insight into life and piety during one of Christianity s most formative periods
