

GRAMMAR REVIEW PACKET 2

PARTS OF SPEECH

Words in the English language are divided, according to their use in the sentence, into eight classes called parts of speech.

The eight parts of speech are classified under four headings:

- | | | | |
|---------------------|---------------------|-----------------------|-----------------------|
| 1. Principal | 2. Modifiers | 3. Connectives | 4. Independent |
| a. Noun | a. Adjective | a. Preposition | a. Interjection |
| b. Pronoun | b. Adverb | b. Conjunction | |
| c. Verb | | | |

DEFINITIONS

A noun is the name of a person, place, thing, or idea.

Example: Many famous Americans were born in poverty.

A pronoun is a word used in place of a noun.

Example: I am going with you.

A verb is a word or group of words that specify action, occurrence, or state of being.

Example: Mary plays the piano well. (action)

The play will be held tonight. (occurrence)

Mary is the best pianist. (state of being)

* * *

A word or group of words used to describe, modify, or limit the meaning of another word is called a modifier. Adjectives and adverbs are modifiers.

An adjective modifies the meaning of a noun or pronoun.

Example: The house is a domestic animal.

An adverb modifies a verb, an adjective, or another adverb.

Examples: Speak distinctly. (verb)

This problem is very difficult. (adjective)

We are driving too rapidly. (adverb)

* * *

A word that joins one word to another, or one group of words to another, is called a connective. Prepositions and conjunctions are connectives.

A preposition is a word that shows the relationship between its object (the noun or pronoun that follows it) and some other word in the sentence.

Example: We are going to Cleveland this summer.

A conjunction connects words or groups of words.

Example: Carl and John are visiting us.
