Sagas of Adolescence: Stories for Students SaSa Shaler,2009-10-13

My fascination with teenagers began when I was nine and never entirely disappeared even after living through the teens myself even after having grown up enough to be thankful those years were behind me My early influences undoubtedly contributed to this as I grew up during the accent on youth culture of the late 1960s and the 1970s Much of my continuing fascination with the tumultuous state of adolescence the time of being neither a child nor an adult is linked to my livelihood I teach in an urban high school Thus I am surrounded by teens all the time I am a natural storyteller and when I decided to teach I chose a graduate school program in which storytelling was highly respected and encouraged as a teaching tool As a result storytelling became an integral part of my teaching strategy I have employed storytelling in every teaching position I have held My nieces and nephews have looked forward to Aunt SaSa myself telling stories since they were tiny Now the older ones are moving into adolescence As a loving aunt I want to be on the front lines of teaching them how to make good choices and to keep themselves safe from bad influences I have held teenage attention consistently by incorporating elements of my own adolescence into my stories I have stressed that it is okay to make a mistake because experience is the best and the toughest teacher I follow with the sentiment Try not to make the same mistake twice I do deal in fiction this is apparent to adults I grew up with who read my jaunty witticisms and follow the flawless judgment in my stories that they know for a fact I didn't have at that age Yet because there is a strong circle of love that exists for me I know they will never give my young audience that word to the wise about SaSa Short Stories Rudolph Gonzales,2005-02-25 The book is about my schizophrenia mental I got in Vietnam I try to tell what is going on with my life The V A my relationship with family and my schooling A lot of thoughts on cultural identity Pilgrims' Passage Joe Buda,2014-09-24 Why does Pilgrims Passage matter Why can greed and deceit still manipulate us Why do people choose power over family Working to address these questions and more Pilgrims Passage Into a New Millennium and Rebuilding the Past are journeys brimming with adventures through turbulent times during the transition into the twenty first century For Paul Bardeck and Claudia Weiss discovering a thousand year old monks journal fuels their quest to rebuild a mysterious ancient monastery perched upon the foothills in the Slovakian High Tatras with the promise of releasing boundless energy stored within ancient ruins as well as the Book of ONE Concurrently Karl Vlodas seemingly unquenchable thirst for wealth and power fueled by the Black Star Pact's dark energy seems to make the quest for ancient truths a sideshow As the pilgrims paths entangle will the promise of timely truths finally come to light Does standing against the powers of darkness really matter today Painful Passage, Joyful Journey Susan A. Cooper,2024-01-10 Painful Passage Joyful Journey is the narrative of my personal experiences as viewed through multiple lenses the six year old child so violently wretched from a loving family by the murder suicide of her parents the little girl who lost her big brother as they were physically and emotionally separated for life the decade of abuse in the house of a relative the wounded adult confronting the past in order to have a future the healed survivor reexamining six plus decades of lies and betrayals and in the midst of it all the constant presence of a loving God Rites of Passage (EasyRead Large Bold Edition) , Parakeet Races and Other Stories Cindy Hall Ranii,2012-02 Parakeet Races and Other Stories is a memoir that recounts the challenges and escapades of a family of six children in the 1950 s which faces the premature death of its mother Always authentic each self contained story can be read in just a few richly rewarding minutes that may leave the reader laughing out loud crying or both Together the stories recount the collective memories of a remarkable set of siblings three boys and three girls the father who gives it his very best and the mother whom the children can barely remember The stories explore the mystery of the mother's death and reflect how the death of a parent in that era was often a topic not to be discussed or processed The author Cindy Hall Ranii is the oldest daughter in the Hall Family and beyond sharing the memories of her childhood and that of her siblings she also shares her experiences as a world traveler first as a teenager in Finland then as a college student in India and finally as a Peace Corps Volunteer in Iran With her keen powers of observation and respectfulness of different cultures she gives the reader the opportunity to eavesdrop on other peoples and other places In
