Passing On The Faith:

Passing on the Faith Merton P. Strommen, Dick Hardel, 2008 From the Introduction This book is about passing on the faith from generation to generation throughout the milestones of a person's life Faith is created and nurtured by the Holy Spirit through the Gospels The vision underlying the RADICAL model was developed in light of the theological principle that faith is formed by the Holy Spirit through personal trusted relationships often but not always in our own homes A youth and family ministry for the 21st century connects all the generations in the total ministry of the congregation and through the cross of Christ recognizes the work of the Holy Spirit shaping faith in all the circles of relationships This revised edition expands on the authors original model in an all new chapter on the circle of creation This edition has also been updated throughout in light of new ideas and research that have emerged during the past decade PASSING ON FAITH. OLWYN. MARK, 2016 Parents Passing on the Faith Carl K. Spackman, 1989 Passing on the Faith Merton P. Strommen, Dick Hardel, 2000-01-01 What a radically new yet ancient model of faith formation the family is restored to the center of the faith growth process with the congregation and community as integral active partners The authors of Passing On the Faith present this new model which is based on the extensive research of Search Institute and the Youth and Family Institute of Augsburg College including the finding that only 10 percent of church families both Protestant and Catholic discuss their faith on a regular basis In Passing On the Faith Merton P Strommen and Richard A Hardel draw on their pastoral experiences to relate research and theory to Catholic daily life The book addresses topics including strengthening family relationships congregations as family creating a Christian youth subculture and transforming today's culture It also gives concrete advice for translating the strategies from vision into action With its helpful chapter notes bibliography list of resource contacts and index Passing On the Faith is an important text for college and seminary courses in youth and family ministry and is a useful reference book for community and school libraries With its narrative style ideas anecdotes charts and graphs and activities it is also an essential resource for pastors youth ministers family ministers and community leaders This book will encourage dialogue about an essential tenet of Christian teachings that the family is central to faith formation Cities of Our Faith Samuel Lunt Caldwell, 1890 Your Theological Last Will and Testament Wesley C. Telyea, 2013-12-10 Have you ever wondered what the church will look like a generation or two from now Do you worry that the church you grew up in might someday die Would you like to see your faith legacy passed on to a new generation of Christians Using Martin Luther's Smalcald Articles Wesley Telyea explores how Christians today can use Luther's insights found in his own theological last will and testament to write their own and pass the faith to the next generation of disciples For Lutherans this book will bring to life an often neglected but highly valuable confessional document For non Lutherans this book will open up a new way of thinking for how to make disciples Networks for Faith Formation Steve Emery-Wright, Ed Mackenzie, 2017-05-19 The spiritual formation of young people can often focus on encouraging their personal spiritual practices and perhaps linking them to a local youth group While both are important Networks for Faith Formation argues that a far wider set of relationships are needed to help faith grow The aim of Networks for Faith Formation is to describe and commend eight key networks relational bonds that nurture and nourish faith The eight networks are bedroom practices personal faith church family friends mentors small groups events and gatherings and mission and service The description of each network draws on biblical studies practical theology and the social sciences and practical ideas for helping young people engage with such networks are included throughout the book In a context where some overlook the complexity of spiritual formation Networks for Faith Formation is an important resource for church leaders youth ministers and parents seeking to help young people grow in faith Since relational bonds are key for people of any age it can also help all within the church understand the need for relationships in spiritual growth

A Philosophy of Faith Finlay Malcolm,Michael Scott,2022-08-11 Faith occupies an important place in human lives It can be directed towards God friends political systems and sports teams and is said to help people through crises and to motivate people to achieve life goals But what is faith Philosophers and theologians have for centuries been concerned with questions about the rationality of faith but more recently have focussed on what kind of psychological attitude faith is The authors of this book bring together for the first time the different elements of this recent debate staking out the different positions and arguments and defending a novel true grit theory of faith from which the rationality and language of faith are addressed from a fresh perspective The book engages with a range of questions about the nature of faith including Does faith require belief Is faith motivational What is the relationship between faith trust and hope Do expressions of faith aim at the truth And in what sense is faith resilient The authors defend a distinctive conception of faith involving resistance to psychological practical and epistemic challenges from which a novel account of the psychology and epistemology of faith is developed The treatment of the topic draws extensively on the philosophy of mind language and religion and provides a map of this exciting field of study for newcomers to the philosophy of faith A Philosophy of Faith will appeal to researchers and advanced students in philosophy of religion philosophy of mind philosophy of language and epistemology who are interested in the topic of faith

Faith, Politics, and Power Rebecca Sager, 2010-01-15 During the 2000 presidential campaign George W Bush made faith based social services one of the centerpieces of his domestic agenda These faith based initiatives supporters argued would reduce poverty ease the strain on an overburdened welfare system and prove more effective than government programs Opponents feared rampant proselytizing with government funds Instead these practices created a system in which neither the greatest hopes of its supporters nor the greatest fears of its opponents have been realized The product of five years of in depth research Rebecca Sager's Faith Politics and Power offers a systematic examination of where and how these programs were implemented arguing that faith based initiatives strayed from supporters original aim of helping the poor and instead were used as tools to gain political power by the Republican Party and the conservative evangelical movement A
