Psalms French King David:

Clément Marot Ehsan Ahmed,2005 Ahmed presents the political religious and poetic explorations of Marot's relation with King Francis I of France      Sacred Repertories in Paris under Louis XIII Peter Bennett,2023-04-14 The study of sacred music under Louis XIII r 1610 43 has advanced little in the past hundred years Despite some important recent contributions by the late Denise Launay and others much of our current perception of the Latin sacred music of the period is still informed by the pioneering research undertaken by Henri Quittard in the early years of the twentieth century Even with Quittard's work however the almost complete absence of surviving sources has severely limited our understanding of this era But by re-examining one of the seventeenth century treasures of the Bibliothèque nationale MS Vma r s 571 Sacred Repertories in Paris under Louis XIII reveals that far from being a transitional period in which little music of any interest was produced the reign of Louis XIII witnessed a flowering of musical activity and the development of musical techniques normally associated with the reign of Louis XIV Based on an exhaustive and innovative manuscript study Sacred Repertories shows that Vma r s 571 a largely anonymous source of previously unknown provenance was copied in Paris by the composer Andr  Pechon and that it preserves three previously unidentified repertories with connections to the court of Louis XIII The repertoire of the musique de la chambre until now considered a secular institution shows it to have been an equal partner of the chapelle in the provision of sacred music at court The repertoire of the royal parish church of Saint Germain l'Auxerrois the only working liturgical repertoire surviving from the century illustrates musical practices at this important collegiate church And the repertoire of the Royal Benedictine Abbey of Montmartre testifies to the richness of musical tradition in Parisian convents during a period when no other comparable music from France survives Sacred Repertories thus transforms our understanding of the musical landscape of seventeenth century France and provides a springboard for      A Lancastrian Mirror for Princes Rosemarie McGerr,2011-11-15 This seminal study addresses one of the most beautifully decorated 15th century copies of the New Statutes of England uncovering how the manuscript's unique interweaving of legal religious and literary discourses frames the reader's perception of the work Taking internal and external evidence into account Rosemarie McGerr suggests that the manuscript was made for Prince Edward of Lancaster transforming a legal reference work into a book of instruction in kingship as well as a means of celebrating the Lancastrians' rightful claim to the English throne during the Wars of the Roses A Lancastrian Mirror for Princes also explores the role played by the manuscript as a commentary on royal justice and grace for its later owners and offers modern readers a fascinating example of the long lasting influence of medieval manuscripts on subsequent readers      The Prayers of David Goulder,2004-10-27 In the second of his invigorating studies on the Psalms Goulder builds a fascinating case for a Davidic connection in Psalms 51 72 Goulder argues that the Prayers were composed by one of David's priests and stand in their historical order Thus Psalm 51 with which the sequence opens is in Jewish tradition David's psalm of contrition for Uriah's murder and 72 is the psalm for Solomon's coronation the beginning and end of the Succession Narrative The whole is prefaced by a shrewd and highly entertaining account of Psalm scholarship and a discussion of the character of the succession narrative and rounded off by a note suggesting how the present structure of the Psalter developed Richard Coggins Expository Times British Museum British Museum (London),1883 French Illuminated Manuscripts in the J. Push Me, Pull You, 2011-05-10 Late Medieval and Renaissance art was surprisingly pushy its architecture demanded that people move through it in prescribed patterns its sculptures played elaborate games alternating between concealment and revelation while its paintings charged viewers with imaginatively moving through them Viewers wanted to interact with artwork in emotional and or performative ways This inventive and personal interface between viewers and artists sometimes conflicted with the Church's prescribed devotional models and in some cases it complemented them Artists and patrons responded to the desire for both spontaneous and sanctioned interactions by creating original ways to amplify devotional experiences The authors included here study the provocation and the reactions associated with medieval and Renaissance art and architecture These essays trace the impetus towards interactivity from the points of view of their creators and those who used them Contributors include Mickey Abel Alfred Acres Kathleen Ashley Viola Belghaus Sarah Blick Erika Boeckeler Robert L A Clark Lloyd DeWitt Michelle Erhardt Megan H Foster Campbell Juan Luis Gonz lez Garc a Laura D Gelfand Elina Gertsman Walter S Gibson Margaret Goehring Lex Hermans Fredrika Jacobs Annette LeZotte Jane C Long Henry Luttikhuisen Elizabeth Monroe Scott B Montgomery Amy M Morris Vibeke Olson Katherine Poole Alexa Sand Donna L Sadler Pamela Sheingorn Suzanne Karr Schmidt Anne Rudloff Stanton Janet Snyder Rita Tekippe Mark Trowbridge Mark S Tucker Kristen Van Ausdall Susan Ward
