A Korean Scholar's Rude Awakening in Qing China Pak Chega, 2019-07-31 Two years after Adam Smith's Wealth of Nations was published in 1776 Pak Chega's 1750-1805 Discourse on Northern Learning appeared on the opposite corner of the globe. Both books presented notions of wealth and the economy for critical review; the former caused a stir across Europe, the latter influenced only a modest group of Chosŏn 1392-1897 Korea scholars and other intellectuals. Nevertheless, the ideas of both thinkers closely reflected the spirit of their times and helped define certain schools of thought. In the case of Pak Chega's Discourse on Northern Learning, which disparaged the Chosŏn Neo-Confucian state ideology as inert and ineffective, years of humiliation and resentment against the conquering Manchus blinded many Korean elites to the scientific and technological advances made in Qing China 1644-1911. They despised its rulers as barbarians and begrudged Qing China's status as their suzerain state. But Pak Chega saw Korea's northern neighbor as a model of economic and social reform. He and like-minded progressives discussed and corroborated views about the superiority of China's civilization. After traveling to Beijing in 1776, Pak Chega wrote Discourse on Northern Learning in which he favorably introduced many aspects of China's economy and culture. By comparison, he argued, Korea's economy was depressed, the result of inadequate government policies and the selfishness of a privileged upper class. He called for drastic reforms in agriculture and industry and for opening the country to international trade. In a series of short essays, Pak Chega gives us rare insights into life on the ground in late eighteenth-century Korea and, in many details, he supplies on Chinese farming, trade, and other commercial activities, his work provides a window onto everyday life in Qing China. Students and specialists of Korean history, particularly social reform movements and Chosŏn-Qing relations, will welcome this new translation.

Black Orpheus, Transition, and Modern Cultural

Awakening in Africa Peter Benson, 2023-04-28 Black Orpheus and Transition stand as towering landmarks in Africa's cultural and intellectual history between 1957 and 1978, serving as incubators for the continent's postcolonial literary and artistic awakening. Founded in 1957 by Ulli Beier in Nigeria, Black Orpheus was a platform for artistic experimentation and dialogue, initially inspired by the Paris-based Présence Africaine but quickly evolving into its own distinctive voice. Beier's initiatives, such as the Mbari Clubs in Ibadan and Oshogbo, complemented the magazine's mission, offering creative spaces that nurtured some of Africa's most notable artists and writers. By 1961, Transition, founded in Uganda by Rajat Neogy, emerged as a dynamic forum for cultural redefinition and incisive political commentary. Both publications became indispensable for grappling with the intellectual and cultural challenges of decolonization, exploring themes ranging from African aesthetics to the politics of independence. Despite their profound influence, neither magazine enjoyed smooth trajectories. Black Orpheus weathered internal upheavals with a second editorial generation led by Abiola Irele and J. P. Clark taking the reins and redefining its vision. Meanwhile, Transition faced outright suppression when Neogy was imprisoned for sedition in Uganda. Relocating to Ghana under the stewardship of Wole Soyinka, the magazine continued to thrive, but both journals struggled to adapt to Africa's rapidly evolving post independence realities Their pages reflected a rich tapestry of debates pan Africanism versus tribalism artistic primitivism versus modernism and indigenous languages versus Western literary conventions Ultimately these magazines were more than periodicals they were crucibles of creativity and intellectual exchange that catalyzed a generation of thinkers and writers While their eventual closures were due to economic and logistical challenges their legacy as formative platforms for Africa's modern cultural identity remains unparalleled This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1986     Wanda Ouida,1884     The Babel Guide to Dutch & Flemish Fiction in English Translation Theo Hermans,2001 A handy sized upbeat guide to novels and stories written in Dutch and Flemish which are available in English     Wanda Ouida,2024-02-28 Reprint of the original first published in 1883     Wanda, by Ouida Marie Louise De la Ramée,1883     Prisoners of Fear Gera-Lind Kolarik,2012-10-25 Connie Krauser Chaney had a troubled childhood that she hoped to escape by creating her own stable and caring family Stability however was the last thing she found with her husband Wayne Chaney Physically and sexually abusive Wayne was an uncontrollable force in the life of Connie and their young beautiful son Max Acclaimed author Gera Lind Kolarik investigates both sides of this fatally abusive relationship which prompted one of the United States first anti stalking laws     Breaking the Fourth Wall Tom Brown,2013-08-12 An examination of the role of direct address within fiction cinema focusing on its role in avant garde or experimental cinema and popular genre traditions     Wanda Louise de la Ramée,2018-05-23 Reproduction of the original Wanda by Louise de la Ramée     UTOPIAS - Book 2 Don Vecelli,2016-07-07 Premier Tung Wing has taken control of the Eurasia Federation President Ricardo Carlos of the United Americas Continent UAC is doing all he can to prevent war with Premier Wing but war with the Eurasia Federation is unavoidable The Battle of Tarim Basin in the Taklamakan Desert in China decides the fate of the world The only way to stop Wing is for President Carlos to do the unthinkable Premier Tung Wing has taken control of the Eurasia Federation He has subjugated his android Citizens and forced many of them into his Army The former android leader Supreme Director Chen has retreated to France but is powerless to stop Wing Now Wing is marching on the European Provinces and will destroy the Great Britain Province if the Prime Minister does not surrender President Ricardo Carlos of the United Americas Continent UAC is doing all he can to prevent war with Premier Wing The former Supreme Director Drake has lost the war for Utopias and fled to the South America Federation SAF where he has taken control and declared the SAF an independent country ruled by androids Drake has declared Martial Law against the Primes in his six megacities War with the Eurasia Federation is unavoidable Director Chen's army barely escapes destruction by Wing's army crosses the Atlantic Ocean and travels through the Northwest Passage President Carlos joins up with Chen's army in China where they
