Library,1850 Catalogue of the Library ,1855 Catalogue of the Library of Lawrence Academy Lawrence Academy (Groton, Mass.),1850

Catalog of Copyright Entries ,1931-07 The Cambridge Companion to British Poetry, 1945-2010 Edward Larrissy,2016 This Companion brings together sixteen essays that explore the full diversity of British poetry since the Second World War Focusing on famous and neglected names alike from Dylan Thomas to John Agard leading scholars provide readers with insight into the ongoing importance and profundity of post war poetry Catalogue of the Public Library of the City of Charlestown Anonymous,2022-05-14 Reprint of the original first published in 1862 Bibliotheca Americana Robert Clarke & Co,1886 Faith, Hope and Poetry Malcolm Guite,2010 Faith Hope and Poetry explores the poetic imagination as a way of knowing a way of seeing reality more clearly Presenting a series of critical appreciations of English poetry from Anglo Saxon times to the present day Malcolm Guite applies the insights of poetry to contemporary issues and the contribution poetry can make to our religious knowing and the way we do Theology This book is not solely concerned with overtly religious poetry attends to the paradoxical ways in which the poetry of doubt and despair also enriches theology Developing an original analysis and application of the poetic vision of Coleridge Larkin and Seamus Heaney in the final chapters Guite builds towards a substantial theology of imagination and provides unique insights into truth which complement and enrich more strictly rational ways of knowing Readers of this book will return to their reading of poetry equipped with new insights and enthusiasm and will be challenged to integrate imaginative ways of knowing into their other academic and intellectual pursuits Swinburne and His Gods Margot K. Louis,1990-01-01 Swinburne and His Gods is the first serious critical analysis to examine the poet s background in the high church in the context of his work Louis clearly shows Swinburne s fierce and intimate hostility toward the church and reveals his particular irritation with the doctrines of Newman Keble and Trench In her explanation of his poetic use of sacramental imagery especially those images connected with the Last Supper Louis shows how Swinburne s eucharists can be murderous or erotic aesthetic or republican The demonic parody that characterizes Swinburne s work is shown to have developed through experimentation with neo romantic alternatives to Christianity first through the evocation of a quasi sadistic pessimism then in the embodiment of the sun god of Art and finally as a feeble gesture toward an unknowable deity which moves elusively both within and beyond the natural world Rather than imposing artificial unity on the poet's career Louis presents his work as an integrated series of serious and brilliant experiments in Romantic art Bibliotheca Americana ,1886 Catalogue of the Library of the Newark Library Association. (Historical Sketch of the Library [by F. W. Ricord].). Newark Library Association (NEWARK, New Jersey),1857 Falling Into Matter Elizabeth R. Napier,2012-01-01 Falling into Matter examines the complex role of the body in the development of the English novel in the eighteenth century Elizabeth R Napier argues that despite an increasing emphasis on the need to present ideas in corporeal terms early fiction writers continued to register spiritual and moral reservations about the centrality of the body to human and imaginative experience Drawing on six works of early English fiction Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe Jonathan Swift's Gulliver's Travels Samuel Richardson's Clarissa Henry Fielding's Tom Jones Elizabeth Inchbald's A Simple Story and Mary Shelley's Frankenstein Napier examines how authors grappled with technical and philosophical issues of the body questioning its capacity for moral action its relationship to individual freedom and dignity and its role in the creation of art Falling into Matter charts the course of the early novel as its authors engaged formally stylistically and thematically with the increasingly insistent role of the body in the new genre Spiritual Ecology Chief Oren Lyons,Thomas Berry,Thich Nhat Hanh,Chief Tamale Bwoya,John Stanley,David Robert Loy,Mary Evelyn Tucker,Brian Swimme,Sr. Miriam MacGillis,Wendell Berry,Winona LaDuke,Vandana Shiva,Susan Murphy Roshi,Satish Kumar,Joanna Macy,Geneen Marie Haugen,Eleanor O'Hanlon,Jules Cashford,Bill Plotkin,Sandra Ingerman,Pir Zia Inayat-Khan,Fr. Richard Rohr,Shephali Patel,Lyla June Johnston,2016-09-01 The Zen Master Thich Nhat Hanh was asked what we need to do to save our world What we most need to do he replied is to hear within us the sound of the earth crying Our present ecological crisis is the greatest man made disaster this planet has ever faced its accelerating climate change species depletion pollution and acidification of the oceans A central but rarely addressed aspect of this crisis is our forgetfulness of the sacred nature of creation and how this affects our relationship to the environment There is a pressing need to articulate a spiritual response to this ecological crisis This is vital and necessary if we are to help bring the world as a living whole back into balance The first edition of this book published in 2013 fostered the emergence of the Spiritual Ecology Movement which recognizes the need for a spiritual response to our present ecological crisis It drew an overwhelmingly positive response from readers many of whom are asking the simple question What can I do The 2016 expanded edition offers new chapters including two from younger authors who are putting the principles of spiritual ecology into action working with their hands as well as their hearts It also includes a new preface and revised chapter by Llewellyn Vaughan Lee that reference two major recent events the publication of Pope Francis's encyclical On Care for Our Common Home which brought into the mainstream the idea that the ecological crisis is essentially a spiritual problem and the 2015 Paris Climate Change Conference which saw representatives from nearly 200 countries come together to address global warming including faith leaders from many traditions And in Autumn 2021 we have issued a new edition with a new updated preface from editor Llewellyn Vaughan Lee who has also rewritten his chapter The Call of the Earth Bringing together voices from Buddhism Sufism Christianity and Native American traditions as well as from physics deep psychology and other environmental disciplines this book calls on us to reassess our underlying attitudes and beliefs about the Earth and wake up to our spiritual as well as physical responsibilities toward the planet It s hard to imagine finding a wiser group of humans than the authors represented here all of them both thinkers and do ers in the greatest battle humans have ever faced AN EPIC COLLECTION BILL MCKIBBEN founder 350 org Spiritual Ecology is a superb collection of thoughtful pieces by people who have gone deep to understand our relations with the Earth It comes at a crucial time for humanity BARRY LOPEZ landscape photographer and author Arctic Dreams winner National Book Award Of Wolves and Men Crossing Open Ground About This Life THIS BOOK PROVIDES FRESH THINKING about the spiritual approaches of consciously and consistently making the right choices each of us within our respective sphere of influence As the world works towards a new global climate agreement in 2015 it is in our interest and in the interest of future generations to reflect on how we can individually and collectively contribute to addressing climate change by making our economies and lifestyles more sustainable because solving climate change can help solve many of the issues the earth currently faces Climate change is therefore both a challenge and an opportunity I hope this book inspires and energizes many readers eager to rise to the greatest challenge ever to face humanity by realizing the transformative opportunities we have in front of us CHRISTIANA FIGUERES Former Executive Secretary of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change UNFCCC
