Paralympian My Autobiography:

Paralympian Stephen Miller, 2008 Stephen Miller is one of Britain's most successful athletes. His inspirational autobiography tells of his struggles and triumphs and is told with refreshing honesty and infectious humour. Seize the Day Tanni Grey-Thompson, 2001 Tanni Grey-Thompson has performed at world class level for the past thirteen years in distances ranging from 100m to the marathon. Her 13 Paralympic medals, eight medal placings in the London Marathon and her comprehensive set of British and World Records make her achievements second to none in the disability sport arena. Here she talks candidly about her early life and ambitions before offering a colourful account of her success in the four Paralympic Games in which she has been involved. Tanni talks incisively about disability sporting issues and reveals how she set about becoming a world class athlete. Female Olympian and Paralympian Events Linda K. Fuller, 2018-10-04 Female Olympian and Paralympian Events is a groundbreaking book that examines women's sports in the Olympic and Paralympic Games which have long been underappreciated and under analyzed. The book begins with a brief background on women's participation in the Olympic Games and their role relative to the International Olympic Committee then introduces the underlying Gendered Critical Discourse Analysis theory used throughout the book's analysis before delving into a literature review of female Olympians and Paralympians events. It includes a listing of noteworthy firsts in the field followed by individual discussions of twenty eight Summer and seven Winter events analyzed according to their historical rhetorical and popular cultural representations. Women's unique roles in the various events are discussed, particular athletes and Paralympic events are highlighted and original tables are also included. At the end of each section affiliated organizations and resources are included in this invaluable referential volume. Unbroken Martine Wright, 2017-07-13 THE CROSS SPORTS BOOK AWARDS AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF THE YEAR Tears of sorrow will roll down your face only to be followed by tears of laughter. You will be filled with awe at the unbreakable spirit of Martine Wright. CLARE BALDING By turns heart breaking and heart warming Unbroken is the remarkable true story of a woman who turned trauma and tragedy into hope. The autobiography of 7/7 bombings survivor and GB Paralympian Martine Wright. On the morning of 7th July 2005 Martine Wright's life changed forever. As she boarded an eastbound circle line train at Moorgate station amid the busy rush hour she didn't pay attention to her fellow passengers. At 8.49am one of those passengers detonated a suicide bomb that would kill seven people in the carriage part of a wider attack on London claiming 52 lives that became known as the 7/7 bombings. Martine was in fact the last person to be brought out alive from the atrocities. She lost 80 per cent of her blood, was in a coma for seven days and underwent ten months of surgery. Not only did Martine survive her horrific injuries but having never played sport seriously before she took up sitting volleyball as part of her rehabilitation and went on to represent Great Britain at the Paralympics in London 2012. A deeply poignant moment that signified her triumph over tragedy it marked a journey Martine felt she was destined to make. Since then Martine has become a national figure, a formidable powerful brilliantly funny hugely engaging heroine who has come back almost literally from the dead In 2012 she was awarded the Helen Rollason award at the Sports Personality of the Year and in 2015 the Independent voted her one of 50 most powerful women in British Sport Beyond her phenomenal sporting achievements Martine continues to change the lives of those around her as a charity fundraiser and inspirational speaker The Cultural Politics of the Paralympic Movement P. David Howe,2008-02-19 Raising questions and debates crucial to students of social and disability studies this book queries the Paralympic games development as a positive one and questions its role as a vehicle for the empowerment of the disabled community Maggie Alphonsi: Winning the Fight Maggie Alphonsi,Gavin Mairs,2023-08-31 Shortlisted for the Sports Book Awards Autobiography of the Year Maggie Alphonsi is not only a national sporting icon the face of international women s rugby and star player of the England side that won the World Cup in 2014 She is also an inspirational and totemic figure who transcends sport The compelling story of her life makes her achievements even more extraordinary Hers is an against all the odds tale becoming the best player in the world despite having to battle against racism sexism and prejudice It is a book forged from the raw emotion passion and testimony of an iconic player who rose to the elite of world sport when the world was seemingly stacked against her It is a moving and revealing story of a woman who was not prepared to be defined by anyone but herself and gives the reader a unique insight into how she met her goals Maggie has changed the way the game is played forever The Sunday Times Personalisation and Dementia Gill Bailey,Helen Sanderson,2013-10-21 Personalisation builds on person centred care to focus on how people with dementia can have more choice and control in their lives and be supported to be part of their community This practical guide explains how to deliver personalised services and support for people with dementia through simple evidence based person centred practices and tools Running My Life - The Autobiography Seb Coe,2012-11-08 One second in time may separate the great athlete from the merely good Seb Coe has made every second count From an early age he has been driven to be the best at everything he does Since the moment Coe stood alongside a scrubby municipal running track in Sheffield he knew that sport could change his life It did Breaking an incredible twelve world records and three of them in just forty one days Seb became the only athlete to take gold at 1500 metres in two successive Olympic Games Moscow 1980 and Los Angeles 1984 The same passion galvanised Coe in 2005 when he led Britain s bid to bring the Olympic and Paralympic Games to London He knew that if we won it would regenerate an East London landscape and change the lives of thousands of young people It has Born in Hammersmith and coached by his engineer father Coe went from a secondary modern school and Loughborough University to become the fastest middle distance runner of his generation His rivalry with Steve Ovett gripped a nation and made Britain feel successful at a time of widespread social discontent From sport Coe transferred his ideals to politics serving in John Major s Conservative government from 1992 to 1997 and developing sharp elbows to become chief of staff to William Hague leader of the Party from 1997 to 2001 and finally a member of the House of Lords Running My Life is in turns exhilarating inspiring amusing and extremely moving Everyone knows where Sebastian Coe ended up Few people realise how he got there This is his personal journey Becoming a Sport Psychologist Paul McCarthy,Marc Jones,2013-08-15 Sport psychology is a competitive profession with rigorous and demanding entry routes in terms of education training and accreditation Once qualified the sport psychology practitioner will face complex day to day professional challenges of the kind not always covered in conventional sport psychology textbooks Becoming a Sport Psychologist is the first book to reveal the reality of working in sport psychology through the personal perspectives and narratives of some of the world s leading sport psychologists top professionals with many years experience of working at every level of sport from amateur to elite in consulting and support roles and in sport psychology research With each chapter focusing on a key issue or issues in professional practice each contributing psychologist discusses their own education training and professional experience their personal motivation and their approach to consulting and delivery helping the reader to develop a rounded understanding of how to succeed in sport psychology The book also explores key professional issues such as intervention style work life balance and the commercial aspects of sport psychology practice not covered in other books plus it offers a summary of typical education and training routes and additional information on professional organisations and accreditation schemes Becoming a Sport Psychologist is invaluable reading for anybody considering a career in sport psychology or any practising sport psychologist looking to extend and develop their professional skills Blast Injury Science and Engineering Anthony M.
