Telling them to smile, be polite, and wear nice clothes is all good advice if they even get to the interview stage of the hiring process. The hard reality is that most of them won't get that far and they'll never know why. In his book The Job Talk, author and multi small business owner Darrell Doepke shares with you the process of recruiting and hiring new employees from a small business owner's perspective so that you can better understand how and why hiring decisions are made and how a first timer like your teenaged son or daughter can gain an advantage. Doepke uses real world true stories to explain the process of elimination that happens long before your teen ever gets to a face to face interview with a decision maker. He teaches in great detail what to expect during the application and interview process and how to prepare for it. It's a weeding out process and your young adult needs to know how to survive it.
