The Mirror of My Heart: A Thousand Years of Persian Poetry by Women Rabe`eh Balkhi, 2023-05-09 One of the very first Persian poets was a woman Rabe eh who lived over a thousand years ago and there have been women poets writing in Persian in virtually every generation since that time until the present Before the twentieth century they tended to come from society s social extremes Many were princesses a good number were hired entertainers of one kind or another and they were active in many different countries Iran of course but also India Afghanistan and areas of central Asia that are now Uzbekistan Turkmenistan and Tajikistan Not surprisingly a lot of their poetry sounds like that of their male counterparts but a lot doesn t there are distinctively bawdy and flirtatious poems by medieval women poets poems from virtually every era in which the poet complains about her husband sometimes light heartedly sometimes with poignant seriousness touching poems on the death of a child and many epigrams centered on little details that bring a life from hundreds of years ago vividly before our eyes This new bilingual edition of The Mirror of My Heart the poems in Persian and English on facing pages is a unique and captivating collection introduced and translated by Dick Davis an acclaimed scholar and translator of Persian literature as well as a gifted poet in his own right In his introduction he provides fascinating background detail on Persian poetry written by women through the ages including common themes and motifs and a brief overview of Iranian history showing how women poets have been affected by the changing dynasties From Rabe eh in the tenth century to Fatemeh Ekhtesari in the twenty first each of the eighty four poets in this volume is introduced in a short biographical note while explanatory notes give further insight into the poems themselves

Tablet & Pen Reza Aslan, 2025-04-25 A Words Without Borders Anthology Remarkable a triumph connects us at the level of our humanity no matter where we may be from Los Angeles Times The countries that stretch along the broad horizons of the Middle East from Morocco to Iran from Turkey to Pakistan boast different cultures different languages and different religions Yet the literary landscape of this dynamic part of the world has been bound together not by borders and nationalities but by a common experience of Western imperialism Keenly aware of the collected scars left by a legacy of colonial rule the acclaimed writer Reza Aslan with a team of four regional editors and seventy seven translators cogently demonstrates with Tablet and Pen how literature can in fact be used to form identity and serve as an extraordinary chronicle of the disrupted histories of the region Acting with Words Without Borders which fosters international exchange through translation and publication of the world's finest literature Aslan has purposefully situated this volume in the twentieth century beyond the familiar confines of the Ottoman past believing that the writers who have emerged in the last hundred years have not received their full due This monumental collection therefore of nearly two hundred pieces including short stories novels memoirs essays and works of drama many of them presented in English for the first time features translated works from Arabic Persian Urdu and Turkish Organized chronologically the volume spans a century of literature from the famed Arab poet Khalil Gibran to the Nobel laureates Naguib Mahfouz and Orhan Pamuk from the great Syrian Lebanese poet Adonis to the grand dame of Urdu fiction Ismat Chughtai connected by the extraordinarily rich tradition of resplendent cultures that have been all too often ignored by the Western canon By shifting America's perception of the Middle Eastern world away from religion and politics Tablet and Pen evokes the splendors of a region through the voices of its writers and poets whose literature tells an urgent and liberating story With a wealth of contextual information that places the writing within the historical political and cultural breadth of the region Tablet and Pen is transcendent a book to be devoured as a single sustained narrative from the first page to the last Creating a vital bridge between two estranged cultures this is that rare anthology cohesive affecting and informing Publishers Weekly

Iran and the Surrounding World Nikki R. Keddie, Rudi Matthee, 2011-10-01 These essays examine Iran's place in the world its relations and cultural interactions with its immediate neighbors and with empires and superpowers from the beginning of the Safavid period in 1501 to the present day The book provides important historical background on recent political and social developments in Iran and on its contemporary foreign relations The topics explored include Iranian influence abroad on political organization religion literature art and diplomacy as well as Iran's absorption of foreign influences in these areas A special focus is the prevailing political culture of Iran throughout its early modern and contemporary periods The authors combine approaches from history political science anthropology international relations and cultural studies Some essays address Iran's interactions with various Arab and Turkic ethnicities in the region stretching from India to Egypt Others examine its relations with the West during the Qajar and Pahlavi eras women's issues culture inside Iran during the Islamic Republic and the Shi'ite theocracy of Iran as compared with other Muslim states

Iran Homa Katouzian, 2013-03-05 This book offers a view of Iran through politics history and literature showing how the three angles combine Iran being a revolutionary society experienced two great revolutions within the short span of just seventy years from the 1900s to the 1970s Both were massive revolts of the society against the state the main objective of the first being to establish lawful government to make modernisation possible and the second to overthrow the absolute and arbitrary state though this time mainly under the banner of religion and Marxism Leninism and anti Westernism Neither of them succeeded in their lofty ideals for reasons that are explained and analysed within The author also offers a detailed description of Iran s short term society examining the political and intellectual lives of two of the most remarkable intellectuals cum politicians of the twentieth century This book provides an overview of modern Persian literature both poetry and prose and discusses the works of three of the most remarkable Persian poets and writers of the period It considers classical Persian literature through the great variety of its form and substance and neo classical literary developments in the nineteenth century covering the whole history of Persian literature This is crowned in the last chapter by the love poetry of one of the greatest Persian poets Iran will be of interest to students and scholars of Iranian studies and Middle East Politics

Historical Dictionary of Women in the Middle East and North Africa Ghada Talhami, 2013 The overriding theme of this work is that women s struggles human rights myths and literary expression are indispensable to an understanding of the modern culture and socio political development of the Middle East region The work demonstrates that no aspect of Middle Eastern history and modern evolution was shaped in isolation of women s lives and contributions to society The dictionary covers the biographies and written work of prominent historical female figures in the Middle East and North Africa as well as 20th century feminists both male and female who advanced women s rights over many years The Historical Dictionary of Women in the Middle East and North Africa includes a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and a dictionary section that has over 400 cross referenced entries on various aspects of Middle Eastern feminism and culture touching upon religious themes such as Sharia laws Islamic marriage divorce and inheritance practices This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the culture and history of women in the Middle East and North Africa
