of ritual practitioners as part of a street play performed in front of tens of thousands of spectators Author Julius Bautista suggests that such ritual acts manifest the embodied physicality of a suffering selfhood that facilitates the expression of heartfelt sentiments of pity empathy trust and bereavement By emphasizing these outwardly focused human sensibilities as the wellsprings of ritual agency he demonstrates that Passion rituals are reinterpretations of the very idea and experience of pain hardship and suffering and premised on an appeal for a certain kind of divine intimacy The author draws on a decade of in depth and often exclusive interviews with a host of local stakeholders including ritual practitioners clerics scholars and government officials and his own participation in a Passion play Ethnographic insight is considered alongside primary and secondary archival sources including unpublished locally produced oral historical accounts and a survey of relevant media coverage The Way of the Cross makes a welcome contribution to the anthropology of religion by examining the unique ontological contexts in which ritual agents experience God s involvement in their lives The Holy Court, in Five Tomes ... Hatch,2013-08-27 Concerned to think intentionally about liturgy in Baptist life and thought this book aims to address the practices of Christian worship in a theological light examining how each brings individual Christian believers and communities of faith to a greater understanding and embodiment of the gospel In this mode worship becomes a seamless garment that forms disciples of Christ and opens out toward the world In short theology worship and mission all intersect in the liturgical life of the body of Christ In addition to theological engagement with liturgical practices Gathering Together links reflection to praxis by offering sample patterns as a guide for reenvisioning the shape of Baptist and other free church worship Meeting of Religions and the Trinity Gavin D'Costa,2000-06-29 One of the most discussed topics of our time is Christianity s relation to other religions In this important new book one of Britain s leading contemporary theologians develops a sharp and penetrating critique of the pluralist position In the tradition of Alasdair MacIntyre and John Milbank D Costa shows that too often it masks a secularizing agenda traceable to the worst aspects of Enlightenment modernity Even by its own criteria pluralism does not succeed D Costa demonstrates this by exploring the meeting of the religions in its leading exponents from Christianity Judaism Hinduism and Buddhism He discovers the influence of Western modernist thought or else a veiled exclusivism not only in Hick Knitter Cohn Sherbok and Panikkar but even in Radhakrishnan and the Dalai Lama He then goes on to establish an alternative Trinitarian approach to interreligious prayer and tolerance drawing on recent discussions of other religions as vehicles of salvation The final section of the book represents the first major systematic theological study of interfaith prayer The Holy Court Nicolas Caussin,1678
