Idowu, 2021-02-24 This book examines and analyzes the challenges programmes for Corporate Social Responsibility CSR and sustainable development are facing in global management practice It looks at the dichotomy of a general and popular demand for responsible and resilient management and the counterplayers that impact the positive effect of such efforts The book assembles latest research looking at the root causes for this opposition and new case studies that showcase the dilemma and possible solutions to overcome it Overall the book juxtaposes short terminism within CSR programmes and longer term sustainable development mis allocation of resources and failed promises associated with CSR and sketches pathways how CSR and sustainable development can be directed towards the most pressing issues

Disarmament, Demobilization and Reintegration in Southern Africa Gwinyayi Albert Dzinesa, 2017-08-24 This book is a critical comparative reflection of the post colonial conflict Disarmament Demobilization and Reintegration DDR of ex combatants in Zimbabwe Namibia and South Africa It offers an up to date comparative analysis of how specific analytical elements that transcend state boundaries shaped DDR in the three southern African countries The author explores structural and organizational frameworks target groups state leadership in DDR linkages between DDR and SSR in nation and state building and types of post conflict violence The volume draws on fieldwork including interviews with policy makers and government officials as well as ex combatants and experts to provide valuable insights into how post colonial conflict DDR can provide knowledge crucial to understanding and addressing the problems of post conflict peace building in Africa The book is aimed at academics researchers and students working on

Southern Africa African and Western policymakers concerned with problematic post conflict situations on the continent where improvising DDR processes will be vital to success as well as the general reader interested in political security and other developments in the region It will be of use in postgraduate courses in the inter related fields of international relations comparative government conflict resolution and peacebuilding (Michael F. Robinson),2022-08-25 19 Bureaucracy, Law and Dystopia in the United Kingdom's Asylum System John R. Campbell,2016-12-01 The central concern of this book is to find answers to fundamental questions about the British asylum system and how it operates Based on ethnographic research over a two year period the work follows and analyses numerous asylum appeals through the British courts It draws on myriad interviews with individuals and a thorough examination of many state and non state organizations to understand how the system works While the organization of the book reflects the formal asylum process a focus on specific legal appeals reveals the political factors at play as different institutions and actors seek to influence judicial decision making and overturn uphold official asylum policy The final chapter draws on the author s ethnographic findings of the UK s asylum field to re examine research on the Refugee Determination System in the US Canada and Australia which has narrowly focused on judicial decision making It argues that analysis of Refugee Determination Systems must be situated and studied as part of a wider political semi autonomous asylum field which needs to be better understood Providing an in depth ethnographic study of a national asylum system and of immigration law and practice the book will be an invaluable resource for academics researchers and policy makers in the UK and beyond working in this highly topical area Handbook of Water Resources Management: Discourses, Concepts and Examples Janos J. Bogardi,Joyeeta Gupta,K. D. Wasantha Nandalal,Léna Salamé,Ronald R.P. van Nooijen,Navneet Kumar,Tawatchai Tingsanchali,Anik Bhaduri,Alla G. Kolechkina,2021-06-12 This book provides an overview of facts theories and methods from hydrology geology geophysics law ethics economics ecology engineering sociology diplomacy and many other disciplines with relevance for concepts and practice of water resources management It provides comprehensive but also critical reading material for all communities involved in the ongoing water discourses and debates The book refers to case studies in the form of boxes sections or as entire chapters They illustrate success stories but also lessons to be remembered to avoid repeating the same mistakes Based on consolidated state of the art knowledge it has been conceived and written to attract a multidisciplinary audience The aim of this handbook is to facilitate understanding between the participants of the international water discourse and multi level decision making processes Knowing more about water but also about concepts methods and aspirations of different professional disciplinary communities and stakeholders professionalizes the debate and enhances the decision making Regulating and Combating Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Nkechikwu Azinge-Egbiri,2021-03-01 This book analytically reviews the impact of the global anti money laundering and counter terrorist financing AML CFT framework on the compliance trajectory of a number of jurisdictions to this framework The work begins by examining the international financial sector reform and its evolution to inculcate the global framework for AML CFT regulations. It challenges the resulting uniform AML CFT due to its paradoxical impact on the compliance trajectory of African countries and emerging economies (ACs/EEs). This is done through an examination of the pre-conditions for effective regulation and compliance drivers for ACs/EEs that reveals the behavioural impact of the AML CFT standards on the bloc of countries. Through the application of agency theory, it explores the relationship between ACs/EEs on the one hand and the international financial institutions that formulate, disseminate and facilitate compliance with the global framework for AML CFT standards on the other. The remaining chapters review empirically the compliance pressures and resulting compliance trajectory of ACs/EEs with the AML CFT standards. The final part of the book provides a detailed explanation of the compliance challenges of ACs/EEs and the legitimacy concerns that facilitate this. This book offers a new direction on the impact of global AML CFT standards on ACs/EEs and contributes to the understanding of the conditions under which the global standards are likely to facilitate proactive compliance within these blocs of countries. As such, it will be a valuable resource for academics, researchers and policy makers working in this area.

Mugabeism after Mugabe? Duri, Fidelis Peter Thomas, Marongwe, Ngonidzashe, Mawere, Munyaradzi, 2019-10-22. Arguably one of the long-awaited political handover of power globally happened in November 2017 in Zimbabwe when the former and now late 37-year-long serving and divisive President Robert Gabriel Mugabe was forced out of power by a combination of forces that were spearheaded by the military's Operation Restore Legacy. Mugabe's departure ushered in President Emmerson Dambudzo Mnangagwa's reign. This transition has variously been characterised as marking the inauguration of the Second Republic or New Dispensation or as heralding a new Zimbabwe that is Open for Business. From the moment of the investiture of President Mnangagwa's government, anticipations of seismic changes to the order of doing business by both the incoming government and the larger Zimbabwean society in general were extremely high. There was an expectation that international cooperation with global partners, especially in the West, would be restored alongside the reinvigoration of a near-comatose domestic economy. But did this ever happen? This volume interrogates the impact of the introduction of the Mnangagwa administration from November 2017. The book seeks to broadly dissect and troubleshoot issues of continuity and change from Mugabe's reign into Mnangagwa's Second Republic. In doing so, the book attempts to respond to the grand question: To what extent has Mugabeism, that was the hallmark of Mugabe's reign, continued or discontinued into the Second Republic? The volume, which comes as a sequel to The end of an era: Robert Mugabe and a conflicting legacy, is sure to generate interest and responses from students and academics in the fields of History, International Studies, Political Science, Sociology and Social anthropology, as well as from practitioners in the human rights, transitional justice, conflict resolution, security studies and diplomatic fields.

Reimagining God and Resacralisation Alexa Blonner, 2019-05-14. This book shows that widespread resacralisation has been taking place, which is producing new ways of perceiving God and the divine. The last century has seen unmistakable changes in religious practices and the concept of spirituality right across the world There was a broad expectation for much of the twentieth century that religious worldviews would eventually succumb to the challenge of secularist materialism but this process of secularisation has yet to occur as predicted The book begins by contrasting theories of secularisation and resacralisation Throughout the book conceptual threads or new religious themes related to this resacralisation are discussed in terms of three main categories reimagining God's nature substance and location reimagining human value and purpose and reimagining modes of redemption Finally the book considers how these threads are moving in various different directions and what the religious future might hold This is a bold examination of contemporary spirituality that will appeal to academics and scholars of religious studies new religious movements and the sociology of religion

International Law and Transitional Governance Emmanuel H. D. De Groof, Micha Wiebusch, 2020-04-28 This volume examines the role of international law in shaping and regulating transitional contexts including the institutions policies and procedures that have been developed to steer constitutional regime changes in countries affected by catalytic events The book offers a new perspective on the phenomenon of conflict related transitions whereby societies are re constitutionalized through a set of interim governance arrangements subject to variable degrees of internationalization Specifically this volume interrogates the relevance contribution and perils of international law for this increasingly widespread phenomenon of inserting an auxiliary phase between two ages of constitutional government It develops a nuanced understanding of the various international legal discourses surrounding conflict and political crisis related transitional governance by studying the contextual factors that influence the transitional arrangements themselves with a specific focus on international aspects including norms actors and related forms of expertise In doing so the book builds a bridge between comparative constitutional law and international legal scholarship in the practical and highly dynamic terrain of transitional governance This book will be of much interest to practitioners and students of international law diplomacy mediation security studies and international relations

Reconceptualising education support services in South Africa Johnnie Hay, Macalane J. Malindi, Thabo Makhalemele, 2022-02-10 Inclusive education has been phased into South Africa since 2001 but relies heavily upon adequate support services to support learners and teachers experiencing barriers to learning and development This book focuses on the different levels of support provided in South African education from School based Support Teams to District based Support Teams through to special and full service schools and how these could be reconceptualised to provide improved support to learners and teachers Current research indicates that inclusive education is being implemented in varied and fragmented forms across the country and the point of departure of this work is that education support services need to be improved and reconceptualised to ensure better support for inclusive education Minerals Yearbook Geological Survey, Interior Department, Mines Bureau, 2019-02-15 This volume covering metals and minerals contains chapters on approximately 90 commodities In addition this volume has chapters on mining and quarrying trends and on statistical surveying methods used by Minerals Information plus a statistical summary The World Food Problem Howard D.
