Oracle Night A Novel:

Oracle Night Paul Auster, 2008-09-04 Auster's radical modern ghost story from the author of contemporary classic The New York Trilogy a literary voice for the ages Guardian Several months into his recovery from a near fatal illness novelist Sidney Orr enters a stationery shop in Brooklyn and buys a blue notebook It is September 18 1982 and for the next nine days Orr will live under the spell of this blank book trapped inside a world of eerie premonitions and bewildering events that threaten to destroy his marriage and undermine his faith in reality If The New York Trilogy was Paul Auster's detective story his mesmerizing eleventh novel reads like an old fashioned ghost story But there are no ghosts in this book only flesh and blood human beings wandering through the haunted realms of everyday life Oracle Night is a narrative tour de force that confirms Auster's reputation as one of the boldest most original writers at work in America today His old fashioned art of creating suspense which rivals M R James or Conan Doyle In fact Oracle Night is best read as a post modern ghost story The Guardian

Melancholy and the Archive Jonathan Boulter, 2011-05-19 Melancholy and the Archive examines how trauma history and memory are represented in key works of major contemporary writers such as David Mitchell Paul Auster Haruki Murakami and Jose Saramago The book explores how these authors construct crucial relationships between sites of memory the archive becomes a central trope here and the self that has been subjected to various traumas various losses The archive be it a bureaucratic office Saramago an underground bunker Auster a geographical space or landscape Mitchell or even a hole Murakami becomes the means by which the self attempts to preserve and conserve his or her sense of history even as the economy of trauma threatens to erase the grounds of such preservation as the subject or self is threatened so the archive becomes a fetishized site wherein history is housed accommodated created even fabricated The archive in Freudian terms becomes a space of melancholy precisely as the subject preserves not only a personal history or a culture's history but also the history of the traumas that necessitates the creation of the archive as such The Double, the Labyrinth and the Locked Room Ilana Shiloh, 2011 The present book explores detective and crime mystery fiction and film from the perspective of their entrenched metaphors of paradox Book Jacket

The Seventh Age of Man Muriel Cassel-Piccot, Geneviève Lheureux, 2019-01-23 The Seventh Age of Man Issues Challenges and Paradoxes is a collection of academic essays on Old Age The contributors come from a wide range of fields of expertise which accounts for the originality of the book Depending on their respective disciplines the authors resort to various methodological approaches from sociological case studies to discourse analysis and from historical and political theories to media criticism but they often address similar questions when are people to be considered as old what does it mean to be old how do we deal with ageing and reach similar conclusions about the paradoxical representations of the elderly whether in Renaissance Europe or in contemporary China Although men and women are sometimes treated differently in most societies the older generation is alternately perceived as a threat and a burden or as financial and moral support If they are often criticized or ridiculed especially when they try to retain their youthful looks long after their prime the elderly also trigger a feeling of nostalgia as representatives of a past usually seen as more desirable than the present Their resilience and independence are regularly emphasized as well as their wisdom as a result of their long experience which helps them to contemplate their ends more serenely and which might turn them into models for their contemporaries The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Fiction, 3 Volume Set Brian W.

Shaffer,2011-01-18 This Encyclopedia offers an indispensable reference guide to twentieth century fiction in the English language With nearly 500 contributors and over one million words it is the most comprehensive and authoritative reference guide to twentieth century fiction in the English language Contains over 500 entries of 1000 3000 words written in lucid jargon free prose by an international cast of leading scholars Arranged in three volumes covering British and Irish Fiction American Fiction and World Fiction with each volume edited by a leading scholar in the field Entries cover major writers such as Saul Bellow Raymond Chandler John Steinbeck Virginia Woolf A S Byatt Samuel Beckett D H Lawrence Zadie Smith Salman Rushdie V S Naipaul Nadine Gordimer Alice Munro Chinua Achebe J M Coetzee and Ng g Wa Thiong o and their key works Examines the genres and sub genres of fiction in English across the twentieth century including crime fiction Sci Fi chick lit the noir novel and the avant garde novel as well as the major movements debates and rubrics within the field such as censorship globalization modernist fiction fiction and the film industry and the fiction of migration diaspora and exile

Futurity Amir Eshel,2013-01-14 When looking at how trauma is represented in literature and the arts we tend to focus on the weight of the past In this book Amir Eshel suggests that this retrospective gaze has trapped us in a search for reason in the madness of the twentieth century s catastrophes at the expense of literature s prospective vision Considering several key literary works Eshel argues in Futurity that by grappling with watershed events of modernity these works display a future centric engagement with the past that opens up the present to new political cultural and ethical possibilities what he calls futurity Bringing together postwar German Israeli and Anglo American literature Eshel traces a shared trajectory of futurity in world literature He begins by examining German works of fiction and the debates they spurred over the future character of Germany s public sphere Turning to literary works by Jewish Israeli writers as they revisit Israel s political birth he shows how these stories inspired a powerful reconsideration of Israel s identity Eshel then discusses post 1989 literature from Ian McEwan s Black Dogs to J M Coetzee s Diary of a Bad Year revealing how these books turn to events like World War II and the Iraq War not simply to make sense of the past but to contemplate the political and intellectual horizon that emerged after 1989 Bringing to light how reflections on the past create tools for the future Futurity reminds us of the numerous possibilities literature holds for grappling with the challenges of both today and tomorrow International Don Quixote Theo d'. Haen,Theo d' Haen,Reindert Dhondt,2009 Ever since its appearance Miguel de Cervantes Don Quixote has exerted a powerful influence on the artistic imagination all around the world This cross cultural volume offers important new readings of canonical reinterpretations of the Quixote from Unamuno to Borges from Ortega y Gasset to Calvino from Mark Twain to

Carlos Fuentes But to the prestigious list of well known authors who acknowledged Cervantes influence it also adds new and surprising names such as that of Subcomandante Marcos who gives a Cervantine twist to his Mexican Zapatista revolution Attention is paid to successful contemporary authors such as Paul Auster and Ricardo Piglia as well as to the forgotten voice of the Belgian writer Joseph Grandgagnage The volume breaks new ground by taking into consideration Belgian music and Dutch translations as well as Cervantine procedures in Terry Gilliam s Lost in La Mancha In all this book constitutes an indispensable guide for the further study of the Quixote s Nachleben and offers exciting proposals for rereading Cervantes

Conversations with Paul Auster Paul Auster, 2013-03 Interviews with the author of The New York Trilogy In the Country of Last Things and The Brooklyn Follies The Thousand and One Nights and Twentieth-Century Fiction Richard van Leeuwen, 2018-07-17 It is gradually being acknowledged that the Arabic story collection Thousand and One Nights has had a major influence on European and world literature This study analyses the influence of Thousand and One Nights as an intertextual model on 20th century prose from all over the world Works of approximately forty authors are examined those who were crucial to the development of the main currents in 20th century fiction such as modernism magical realism and post modernism The book contains six thematic sections divided into chapters discussing two or three authors works each from a narratological perspective and supplemented by references to the cultural and literary context It is shown how Thousand and One Nights became deeply rooted in modern world literature especially in phases of renewal and experiment A Life in Words Paul Auster, I. B. Siegumfeldt, 2017-10-03 An inside look into Paul Auster s art and craft the inspirations and obsessions mesmerizing and dramatic in turn A remarkably candid and often surprisingly dramatic investigation into one writer s art craft and life A Life in Words is rooted in three years of dialogue between Auster and Professor I B Siegumfeldt starting in 2011 while Siegumfeldt was in the process of launching the Center for Paul Auster Studies at the University of Copenhagen It includes a number of surprising disclosures both concerning Auster s work and about the art of writing generally It is a book that s full of surprises unscripted yet amounting to a sharply focused portrait of the inner workings of one of America s most productive and successful writers through all twenty one of Auster s narrative works and the themes and obsessions that drive them Creativity and "the Paris Review" Interviews Ronda Leathers Dively, 2022-02-08 Creativity and The Paris Review Interviews A Discourse Analysis of Famous Writers Composing Practices centers around a thematic discourse analysis of a 2000 page corpus of Paris Review interviews focusing on the creative processes of some of the world s most famous fiction writers and poets The discourse analysis traces elements of the paradigmatic creative process model first insight preparation incubation insight verification through the focal artists descriptions of their composing practices as embedded in the interview transcripts That analysis also reveals multiple and significant emergent themes germane to fiction and poetry writing The ultimate goal of this analysis is to identify patterns relevant to the aforementioned creative process elements and themes that are suggestive of specific strategies writers can employ to facilitate their own composing acts whether fictional poetic or expository Such findings will also benefit teachers seeking to facilitate student success in the composition classroom Such applications to expository writing are bolstered by a thorough treatment of scholarship on intersections between creativity theory and composition theory Reading Circles, Novels and Adult Reading Development Sam Duncan, 2012-02-23 Adult literacy teachers are constantly searching for effective engaging and distinctly adult ways to develop adult emergent reading and for at least the past two hundred years adults have formed themselves into reading circles to read and discuss novels on a weekly or monthly basis Why then are reading circles rarely used or studied in formal adult literacy provision This book explores adult reading development novel reading and reading circles in the context of a wider examination of reading pedagogies and practices in the English speaking world It discusses reading as both an individual and a communal act and investigates the relationship between literature and literacy development practice and pedagogy including a reassessment of the controversial approaches of reading aloud and phonics for adults Sam Duncan reviews a case study of an adult reading circle in a large London further education college and identifies the wider implications for the teaching and learning of adult emergent reading for the use and understanding of reading circles and for how we understand the novel reading experience more broadly Reading the Contemporary Author Aliso Gibbons, 2023 Buenas Noches, American Culture María DeGuzmán, 2012-07-09 Often treated like night itself both visible and invisible feared and romanticized Latina os make up the largest minority group in the US In her newest work Mar a DeGuzm n explores representations of night in art and literature from the Caribbean Colombia Central and South America and the US calling into question night s effect on the formation of identity for Latina os in and outside of the US She takes as her subject novels short stories poetry essays non fiction photo fictions photography and film and examines these texts through the lenses of nationhood sexuality human rights exoticism among others Fifty Key Postmodern Thinkers Stuart Sim, 2013-08-21 Postmodernism is an important part of the cultural landscape which continues to evolve yet the ideas and theories surrounding the subject can be diverse and difficult to understand Fifty Postmodern Thinkers critically examines the work of fifty of the most important theorists within the postmodern movement who have defined and shaped the field bringing together their key ideas in an accessible format Drawing on figures from a wide range of subject areas including literature cultural theory philosophy sociology and architecture those covered include John Barth Umberto Eco Slavoj Zizek Cindy Sherman John Cage Jean Francois Lyotard Charles Jencks Jacques Derrida Homi K Bhabha Quentin Tarantino Each entry examines the thinkers career key contributions and theories and refers to their major works A valuable resource for those studying postmodern ideas at both undergraduate and postgraduate level this text will appeal across the humanities and social sciences Human Law and Computer Law: Comparative Perspectives Mireille Hildebrandt, Jeanne Gaakeer, 2013-05-23 The focus of this book is on the epistemological and hermeneutic implications of data science and artificial intelligence for democracy and the Rule of Law How do the normative effects of automated decision systems or the interventions of robotic fellow beings compare to the legal effect of written and unwritten law To investigate these questions the book brings together two disciplinary perspectives rarely combined within the framework of one volume One starts from the perspective of code and law and the other develops from the domain of law and literature Integrating original analyses of relevant novels or films the authors discuss how computational technologies challenge traditional forms of legal thought and affect the regulation of human behavior Thus pertinent questions are raised about the theoretical assumptions underlying both scientific and legal practice

Multimodal Poetics in Contemporary Fiction Thomas Mantzaris, 2024-10-24 This book explores the growing body of multimodal literary texts books that creatively experiment with the potential of design to represent narrative content Examining five North and Central American novels from the first two decades of the twenty first century this study draws attention to texts that combine verbal text writing with non verbal elements photographic images varied typography maps color etc as integral parts of their narratives Their experimentation both reconfigures the potential for print based and born digital fiction in the future and holds a mirror to past practices of design and typography that were rendered invisible or which received limited attention by authors publishers and readers By placing the five case studies and related texts within a broader history of experimentation in literature this book demonstrates how multimodal novels have changed the conceptualization of narrative content in literary texts and ushered in a new era for fiction

Ghost Writing in Contemporary American Fiction David Coughlan, 2016-11-05 This book examines representations of the specter in American twentieth and twenty first century fiction David Coughlan s innovative structure has chapters on Paul Auster Don DeLillo Toni Morrison Marilynne Robinson and Philip Roth alternating with shorter sections detailing the significance of the ghost in the philosophy of Jacques Derrida particularly within the context of his 1993 text Specters of Marx Together these accounts of phantoms shadows haunts spirit the death sentence and hospitality provide a compelling theoretical context in which to read contemporary US literature Ghost Writing in Contemporary American Fiction argues at every stage that there is no self no relation to the other no love no home no mourning no future no trace of life without the return of the specter that is without ghost writing
