To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing regarding Jasmine Jones's application for independent override for the Tuition Assistance Program. This is the second notarized letter I have sent to your office regarding Jasmine's status as an independent student. The original letter was sent on April 30, 2011.

Jasmine is currently attending SUNY Albany. Her social security number is 123-45-6789.

As Jasmine's counselor at Options, a free college counseling program of Goddard Riverside Community Center, I have been working intensely with her over the last six months. Through the counseling process I have come to know her family situation, as it would affect her ability to apply for financial aid. (I have also referred her to the social worker at our agency for additional support and information.) I will outline Jasmine's situation as clearly as I can in this letter.

When Jasmine was born, in 1992, she was immediately taken in by her great-grandparents in Florida because her mother was unable to care for her. Jasmine lived with her great-grandparents until 2001, when she moved to New York City, at the age of nine. Her mother had since moved to NYC and decided she wanted Jasmine to live with her. At that point Jasmine mother had four children, though they had all been raised by other people. The oldest boy had been adopted by his aunt.

The reality has been, for Jasmine's whole life her mother has not been her parent in the sense of taking responsibility for her. From the time she moved to NYC through her junior year in high school, Jasmine has struggled to find stability, safety, and support at home. But her mother's ability to provide a stable home life was completely impeded by the boyfriends she chose. Jasmine had different men living at home, the most recent one being the most troubling. His alcoholism affected the whole family. The worst behavior was his violent, verbal abusive of her mother. Jasmine has said it is no wonder that her brothers had trouble in school because there was no safe, quiet place to do homework.

When Jasmine was 17, in 2009, she knew that she could not survive any longer in the caustic environment of her mother's apartment. She did not feel safe, nor could she attend to her schoolwork. To feel safe and positively motivated, she was forced to move out. She moved in with a close friend whose own mother was critically ill. Because the friend's mother has been hospitalized for the last two years, the two girls have essentially taken care of each other. Their difficult life situations have brought out their inner strength.

Paul's Financial Policy David E. Briones,2014-01-16 This book attempts to prove the consistent nature of Paul s financial policy by drawing from his social environment and theological convictions to tease out a three way relational pattern with God as the source of all possessions This three way relational framework not only dictates Paul s decision to accept or reject finances from his churches but also directly challenges long standing claims made about Paul s financial policy After outlining the various approaches that scholars have taken to make sense of Paul s seemingly inconsistent financial policy this book provides a close exegetical analysis of relevant passages in Philippians 1 Corinthians and 2 Corinthians in order to unearth a three way relational pattern found in Philippians but that is absent from the Corinthian Correspondence In Paul s positive gift exchange relationship with the Philippians God is acknowledged as the source of all possessions whereas the Corinthians are criticized for striving after two way exchanges that result in honor power and prestige After this is demonstrated a socio theological reason for Paul s refusal of Corinthian gifts is propounded Paul refused Corinthian support not because they desired to patronise him as a dependent client but because they sought to be under Paul as their superior an act that neglected God as the superior source of all gifts in the divine economy Paul therefore refuses their support to avoid two way relationships of gift so prevalent in ancient society and to underscore the source of the gift of the gospel the one from whom and through whom and to whom are all things God 2000-2001 EDExpress ,2000 Scientific American ,1884 Congressional Record United States.
