Youth Football Donation Letter

June 15, 2050

Ms. Stacy Murphy

Financial Director

Stellar Corporation

101 Elm Drive

Hillside, TX 75005

Dear Ms. Murphy,

I hope this letter finds you in good health and spirit. I am writing to you on behalf of Holland Football Club, a non-profit organization that strives to provide opportunities and resources for youth to participate in football in our community.

We believe in helping our community's young people develop their physical abilities, teamwork skills, and character through sports. However, our efforts could not be realized without the generous support of individuals like you.

Our annual budget needs for uniforms, footballs, transportation, and tournament fees total up to around $10,000. We've been managing to carry out our objectives for the past years, yet this year has posed a significant challenge for us. For this reason, I am writing to you today to seek your support. Any financial contribution would be immensely helpful for us to continue serving our youth, who we believe are the future of our society.

Please kindly consider donating to support our local youth and their love for football.

Thank you for considering our letter, and we hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Aiden Willis

Head Coach

Encounters in the Rubble Erica J. Lansberg, 2015-08-12 The US occupation of Germany after World War II was a time in which encounters between American soldiers and young German civilians were especially ubiquitous Overall German children and youth played a fundamental role in the US occupation impacting both personal and political relations Using a blend of sources ranging from German children's diaries to official US military records this work provides a wide reaching examination of the youngest civilians under occupation in the postwar aftermath of the Nazi regime It centers on the personal experiences of both German children and American military personnel during the occupation and also examines the ways that young Germans impacted transatlantic policies especially in the context of the emerging Cold War including during the Berlin Airlift This work thus considers the youngest members of the occupied German population as important historical actors during a time of major transition from war to peace marked by encounters made in the rubble

Facing Fascism Peter N. Carroll, James D. Fernandez, 2007-03

When the Spanish Civil War began in 1936 loosely affiliated groups of writers artists and other politically aware individuals emerged in New York City to give voice to anti fascist sentiment by supporting the Spanish Republic

Facing Fascism New York and the Spanish Civil War examines the participation of New Yorkers in the political struggles and armed conflict that many historians consider a critical precursor to World War II Nearly half of the 2 800 Americans who volunteered to fight in the Abraham Lincoln Brigade against Generalissimo Francisco Franco came from the New York area Fundraising propaganda and deployment for anti fascists everywhere in America were orchestrated through New York City At the same time powerful voices in New York expressed sympathy for the pro fascist side The fighting in Spain brought to the surface the complex ideological and ethnic identities always present in New York politics Facing Fascism examines the full range of this experience including that of the New Yorkers who supported Franco It addresses the role of doctors nurses and social workers who left New York hospitals to provide assistance to the defenders of the Spanish Republic as well as those who remained active on the home front The book also describes the involvement of students in the war the key role of writers and the media and the contributions made by members of New York's art and theater communities Facing Fascism also serves as the catalog to an exhibition of the same name appearing at the Museum of the City of New York in the spring of 2007 The book and exhibition both make use of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade Archives extensive holdings which range from historical documents to video recordings of oral histories Numerous other libraries archives museums and private collectors have also been consulted to make this the most complete exhibition of its kind ever mounted The exhibition will also appear in Spain Freedom Challenge Grace Llewellyn,1996 Essays written by African American homeschoolers parents and students telling why and how they choose to take control of their own education Princeton Alumni Weekly,1993 Jerusalem Letter ,1990
