Student and Teacher Writing Motivational Beliefs Steve Graham,Gary A. Troia,Gustaf Bernhard Uno Skar,2024-06-21 The study of students motivational beliefs about writing and how such beliefs influence writing has increased since the publication of John Hays 1996 model of writing This model emphasized that writers motivational beliefs influence how and what they write Likewise increased attention has been devoted in recent years to how teachers motivational beliefs about writing especially their efficacy to teach writing impact how writing is taught and how students progress as writers As a result there is a need to bring together in a Research Topic studies that examine the role and influence of writing beliefs Historically the psychological study of writing has focused on what students write or the processes they apply when writing Equally important but investigated less often are studies examining how writing is taught and how teachers efforts contribute to students writing What has been less prominent in the psychological study of writing are the underlying motivational beliefs that drive or inhibit students writing or serve as catalysts for teachers actions in the classroom when teaching writing This Research Topic will bring together studies that examine both students and teachers motivational beliefs about teaching writing This will include studies examining the operation of such beliefs how they develop cognitive and affective correlates how writing motivational beliefs can be fostered and how they are related to students writing achievement By focusing on both students and teachers beliefs the Research Topic will provide a more nuanced and broader picture of the role of motivation beliefs in writing and writing instruction This Research Topic includes papers that address students motivational beliefs about writing teachers motivational beliefs about writing or teaching writing Students motivational beliefs about writing include beliefs about the value and utility of writing writing competence attitudes toward writing goal orientation motives for writing identity epistemological underpinnings writing and attributions for success failure as examples Teacher motivational include these same judgements as well as beliefs about their preparation and their students competence and progress as writers to provide additional examples This Research Topic is interested in papers that examine how such beliefs operate develop are related to other cognitive and affective variables how they are impacted by instruction and how they are related to students writing performance Submitted studies can include original research both quantitative qualitative or mixed methods meta analysis and reviews of the literature

General Pedagogy Martha M. A. Zama,Margaret Nalova Endeley,2023-02-24 General Pedagogy A Guide to Effective Teaching demystifies the scientific art of teaching by providing facts principles and concrete examples in real life situations such that neither the novice teacher who peruses it will stutter in front of students on the first day of school nor will the experienced teacher write and execute the same old lesson plans on that day The best teachers are those who show you where to look but don t tell you what to see is a popular quote attributed to Alexandra K Trenfor which aptly summarises the kind of teachers this book intends to produce

when used as a teacher training resource Real teachers facilitate learning they do not simply tell learners the answers to their questions and concerns Accordingly the authors take the readers through well researched themes in the academic discipline of teaching wherein they present analyse and discuss pertinent issues Although they provide useful suggestions for teaching success the authors encourage teachers to interpret facts ideas and suggestions presented against the sociocultural contexts of their practice The materials are presented creatively while adding a personal touch intended to facilitate effective and efficient learning For coherence and better comprehension the book has been carefully crafted in eighteen chapters lodged in six parts The first part introduces the reader to the concepts of teaching and teaching effectiveness The theoretical underpinnings of these concepts are brought out in the second part which paves the way for the third part that describes generic teaching approaches strategies and methods Part four and five comprise essential teaching skills and teaching tools for the 21st century while part six wraps up with the transition from teacher training laboratories to classrooms in the real world The last two chapters intentionally prepare the teacher to overcome challenges of professional work in contemporary African classrooms
