Listening to Able Underachievers Michael Pomerantz,Kathryn Ann Pomerantz,2013-01-11 This book provides a new contribution to raising attainment in secondary schools with specific reference to able underachievers who are currently achieving C grades or less when they could be getting As Standards are depressed each time a single able underachiever demonstrates a competence that is below his or her real potential It lowers morale in that the progress of the whole school is reduced proportionately in line with the able pupils who aren t achieving their real potential and resources are wasted every time these pupils start misbehaving or creating problems in school This is a new and innovative approach which is based on discussions with the pupils themselves and incorporates not just the usual basic subjects but also the creative areas of the curriculum and the wider community as a whole Head teachers senior managers teachers and students indeed all who are interested in raising standards and ensuring that pupils achieve their full potential will find this book to be an excellent resource

Learning to Teach in the Secondary School Susan Capel,Marilyn Leask,Tony Turner,2007-04-11 This best selling textbook offers a sound and practical introduction to the skills needed to gain Qualified Teacher Status and will help student teachers to develop the qualities that lead to good practice and a successful future in education

Able Children in Ordinary Schools Deborah Eyre,2013-07-04 First published in 1997 The purpose of this book is to help teachers of able children in ordinary schools Very little has been written in Britain about the education of able children although there is a wide body of research in other parts of the world What has been written has been primarily from the psychologist s viewpoint or has focused on individual or groups of able children Such research as has been carried out into provision has focused on selected groups of able children operating in optimum conditions Both of these elements provide useful information for the teacher but neither is in itself sufficient to enable ordinary schools to plan effective provision for their able pupils
