Roy,2005 Despite 58 years experimentation with the policy of protective discrimination and planned development a large majority of the 80 2 million tribal people languish in abject poverty landlessness powerlessness illiteracy and malnutrition Being caught in the hangover of the strong patriarchic tradition the women of nearly 700 marginalized tribal communities find themselves highly exploited subjugated and voiceless The present book first of its kind on tribes living in northern districts of West Bengal popularly known as North Bengal explores the areas of subjugation of tribal life and particularly that of the tribal women and analytically presents the case of tribal women in a tea garden locale in the Dooars region of Jalpaiguri district The focus of the study has been education i e how the tribes in general and tribal women in particular are doing in the field of education The field of education is chosen because it is generally considered the most important force of empowerment enlightenment and social transformation and because it provides us with a field to explore the areas of gender discrimination subsumed in tribal patriarchy The book has approached the problem of tribal education and the gender question in education against the backdrop of the dialectics of dominant subordinate relationship between the state and the dominant society on the one hand and the marginalized tribes on the other The uniqueness of the book lies in its critical approach to the state sponsored development strategies and its emphasis on a cultural approach for a better understanding of the problem and for working out alternative development strategies for improving the educational status of the tribal communities Sanjay K Roy Reader Department of Sociology North Bengal University West Bengal had his Ph D from Delhi School of Economics Delhi University and pursued post Doctoral research at the University of Sussex UK and University of Wollongong Australia Dr Roy has edited a volume on Refugees and Human Rights 2001 and contributed a good number of research papers to the leading journals volumes and to national and international seminars workshops His areas of interest include sociological theories urban poor refugee studies political sociology and gender studies Dr Roy has completed a number of research projects the latest being Gender Profile of Tribes of North Bengal which has been carried out for the Centre for Women s Studies North Bengal University 36 NTA UGC NET Paper 1 Year-wise Solved Papers (2020 to 2004) 4th Edition Disha Experts,2020-02-04 Current Affairs July 2017 eBook & Question Bank JagranJosh,2017-07-26 Current Affairs July 2017 eBook Question bank is created by keeping the demands of recent pattern of various competitive exams in major view In this ebook you will get compressive knowledge of the events happened in month of June 2017 then in question bank you will practice the topics that you have learnt in the ebook It is brought to you by Jagranjosh.com The topics for cover story and entire news section are selected on the basis of an analysis of general knowledge sections in all important exams including IAS PCS BANK SSC Insurance and others And the time duration of topics covered in magazine includes all exam oriented current affairs of June 2017 It presents the comprehensive coverage of the events of current affairs which are chosen on the basis of the requirements of all important exams It covers all exam oriented current affairs of June 2017 with all required facts and analysis The analysis of all the events related to National International Economy Science Technology Environment Ecology is done in a way that fulfills the demand of all the important exams including IAS The language used in the magazine is lucid and easy to understand
