Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1864      50,000 A.D. The Awakening J. Jack Bergeron, What is the future like And I mean way into the future like 50 000 years Henry Matthew knows He was in stasis for 50 000 years until his revival You might say he s the luckiest man in the universe By pure chance his head along with all his thoughts and memories were protected and preserved allowing him to stay alive for 50 000 years What does this future hold Total peace Long life Enlightened Democracy or something else 50 000 years into the future Henry Matthews is about to embark on a journey of great discovery What does this future think of him Since their own ancient record of human existence only goes back 35 000 years trillions of people are startled to discover the existence of an unknown ancient history when Henry awakens However some refuse to believe human history is older than 35 000 years so that could only mean one thing Henry Matthews must be something other than a human being but what This novel also tries to establish relationships between ancient and new by comparing a few aspects of the different cultures and languages that you would expect to change over these vast periods of time does the hero of the story manage to figure out what the new languages he encounters evolved from PART 1 How Henry Matthews finds his way to 50 000 A D PART 2 How he is discovered and what anxiety and or thrills it causes in these future societies in both a political and spiritual way PART 3 Henry is revived and his relationship to this new era is exposed PART 4 Opps sorry no spoilers but you will be intrigued by what happens youtube promo video <http://youtu.be/hALUeaaRsgQ>
