historical novella written in the late 19th century The story delves into the tumultuous period of a revolutionary war in South America primarily focusing on themes of identity injustice and the struggle for power The main character Gaspar Ruiz is a powerful yet complex figure caught between loyalty and survival navigating the chaos of allegiance in a time of strife The opening of the novella introduces the backdrop of a revolutionary war highlighting the brutality and moral ambiguity faced by common people It begins with Gaspar Ruiz who was taken prisoner during the conflict and is condemned to death as a supposed deserter However the narrative intricately portrays his perspective emphasizing his lack of treachery and the unfortunate circumstances of his capture As he grapples with his impending fate Gaspar's physicality and strength are contrasted against the compassion and puzzlement of Lieutenant Santierra who becomes both spectator and participant in the unfolding drama of war and human endurance Thus the beginning sets the stage for a deeper exploration of character dynamics amidst the harsh realities of conflict This is an automatically generated summary

Gaspar Ruiz Joseph Conrad, 2022-09-05 In Gaspar Ruiz Joseph Conrad tells the compelling story of a sturdy innocent Chilean peasant caught in the midst of a turbulent revolution The novella typifies Conrad's intricate narrative style and his preoccupation with the themes of loyalty betrayal and the ironies of fate Despite being lesser known in Conrad's oeuvre this work is finely wrought exemplifying his ability to craft engrossing tales of moral complexity against the backdrop of a vivid historical setting As with many of Conrad's narratives the psychology of the characters is deeply explored drawing readers into a captivating account of a man's struggle against the force of history and his own nature Joseph Conrad born J zef Teodor Konrad Korzeniowski was a master of English prose despite it being his third language Conrad's own experiences as a mariner profoundly shaped his literary output infusing stories with the authenticity of personal insight In Gaspar Ruiz Conrad may well have reflected on his own encounters with the vagaries of existence and the themes of honor and heroism that punctuate his larger body of work Conrad enthusiasts and new readers alike will find in Gaspar Ruiz a poignant narrative rich in its simplicity and profound in its examination of the human spirit It stands as a testament to Conrad's enduring legacy as a storyteller who can capture the complexities of the human condition in prose that is both dense and accessible This edition by DigiCat Publishing offers an opportunity to rediscover a classic inviting a new generation to experience Conrad's unique literary craft

The Complete Works of Joseph Conrad Joseph Conrad, A work that aspires however humbly to the condition of art should carry its justification in every line And art itself may be defined as a single minded attempt to render the highest kind of justice to the visible universe by bringing to light the truth manifold and one underlying its every aspect It is an attempt to find in its forms in its colours in its light in its shadows in the aspects of matter and in the facts of life what of each is fundamental what is enduring and essential their one illuminating and convincing quality the very truth of their existence The artist then like the thinker or the scientist seeks the truth and makes his appeal Impressed by the aspect of the world the thinker plunges into ideas the scientist into facts whence presently emerging they make their appeal to those qualities of our being that fit us best for the hazardous enterprise of living They speak authoritatively to our common sense to our intelligence to our desire of peace or to our desire of unrest not seldom to our prejudices sometimes to our fears often to our egoism but always to our credulity And their words are heard with reverence for their concern is with weighty matters with the cultivation of our minds and the proper care of our bodies with the attainment of our ambitions with the perfection of the means and the glorification of our precious aims It is otherwise with the artist Confronted by the same enigmatical spectacle the artist descends within himself and in that lonely region of stress and strife if he be deserving and fortunate he finds the terms of his appeal His appeal is made to our less obvious capacities to that part of our nature which because of the warlike conditions of existence is necessarily kept out of sight within the more resisting and hard qualities like the vulnerable body within a steel armour His appeal is less loud more profound less distinct more stirring and sooner forgotten Yet its effect endures forever The changing wisdom of successive generations discards ideas questions facts demolishes theories But the artist appeals to that part of our being which is not dependent on wisdom to that in us which is a gift and not an acquisition and therefore more permanently enduring He speaks to our capacity for delight and wonder to the sense of mystery surrounding our lives to our sense of pity and beauty and pain to the latent feeling of fellowship with all creation and to the subtle but invincible conviction of solidarity that knits together the loneliness of innumerable hearts to the solidarity in dreams in joy in sorrow in aspirations in illusions in hope in fear which binds men to each other which binds together all humanity the dead to the living and the living to the unborn It is only some such train of thought or rather of feeling that can in a measure explain the aim of the attempt made in the tale which follows to present an unrestful episode in the obscure lives of a few individuals out of all the disregarded multitude of the bewildered the simple and the voiceless For if any part of truth dwells in the belief confessed above it becomes evident that there is not a place of splendour or a dark corner of the earth that does not deserve if only a passing glance of wonder and pity The motive then may be held to justify the matter of the work but this preface which is simply an avowal of endeavour cannot end here for the avowal is not yet complete Fiction if it at all aspires to be art appeals to temperament And in truth it must be like painting like music like all art the appeal of one temperament to all the other innumerable temperaments whose subtle and resistless power endows passing events with their true meaning and creates the moral the emotional atmosphere of the place and time Such an appeal to be effective must be an impression conveyed through the senses and in fact it cannot be made in any other way because temperament whether individual or collective is not amenable to persuasion All art therefore appeals primarily to the senses and the artistic aim when expressing itself in written words must also make its appeal through the senses if its highest desire is to reach the secret spring of responsive emotions It must strenuously aspire to the plasticity of sculpture to the colour of painting and to the magic suggestiveness of music which is the art of arts And it is only through complete unswerving devotion to the perfect blending of form and substance it is only through an unremitting never discouraged care for the shape and ring of sentences that an approach can be made to plasticity to colour and that the light of magic suggestiveness may be brought to play for an evanescent instant over the commonplace surface of words of the old old words worn thin defaced by ages of careless usage

Gaspar Ruiz (EasyRead Super Large 20pt Edition) Joseph Conrad, 2010 Dive into a tale of political intrigue from Joseph Conrad the Polish born writer who came to be known as one of the masters of English language fiction In Gaspar Ruiz Conrad explores the psychological trauma of wartime against the backdrop of the Chilean war for independence This tale is a treat for fans of Conrad s work or historical fiction enthusiasts
