

Cheerleading Team Expectations

1. Each week, one cheerleader will be selected to teach the entire squad a new cheer. These cheers can be self-made, borrowed from a friend who is on another cheer squad, taken from cheers on the internet, or new actions to an old favorite. This is to help the squad build a new and creative repertoire of cheers and to give everyone a chance to be in a leadership role. Any cheerleader, at any time, can also suggest and choreograph a new cheer to teach to the squad.
2. Every cheerleader will be asked to make at least one spirit poster or banner to build school spirit. These posters will be hung around the school throughout the year to do your best work. Posters may be drawn, traced, computer generated, painted, colored, or just words!!
3. Practices will begin with a warm-up and then motion technique. Motion technique is essential for proper execution of moves and the overall effectiveness and look of cheers and stunts. Motion technique must also be rehearsed outside of practices and games for automaticity.
4. On the nights before games, cheerleaders will hang up locker decorations on the locker doors of the competing athletes. This is to let the team know we are behind them.
5. Following every cheer and score, a jump or kick should be done.
6. Cheerleaders will be required to have the team cheer sheet, no-thew socks, matching hair accessories, briefs (spankies/bloomers), and warm-ups.
7. Cheerleaders will be required to match and look similar for games and performances. Make-up should be natural. No colored fingernail polish and everyone's hair should be fixed in a comparable manner.
8. Cheerleaders will be required to follow all state cheerleading rules and safety regulations at practices, games, meets, clinics, camps, and any other performance.
9. A team list of cheers will be an ongoing project throughout the season. As we accumulate cheers we will add them to a list that will be used to the future instruction of cheers and as a reference during games and meets.
