Zapatas Disciple Essays:

Zapata's Disciple Martín Espada, 1998 In his first collection of essays award winning poet Martín Espada turns his fierce critical eye toward a broad range of urgent political and cultural issues With the same insight and integrity displayed in his poetry he chronicles many struggles of the Latino community the myths and realities of machismo the backlash against Latino immigrants and the Spanish language the borders of racism and U S colonialism in Puerto Rico Espada's poetry has survived everything from censorship by National Public Radio to a bomb threat at a reading In his essay All Things Censored he describes how NPR commissioned him to write a poem then refused to air the work because of its political content a defense of Mumia Abu Jamal the African American journalist on death row In The Poetics of Commerce Espada takes on the Nike corporation which solicited a poem for use in a television commercial as part of the company's ongoing propaganda campaign to divert attention from its dismal human rights record in Asian sweatshops Espada stirs together ingredients of memoir and reclaimed history in Postcard from the Empire of Queen Ixolil which recalls his pilgrimage to the town in Mississippi where his father was jailed half a century ago for not moving to the back of the bus He also pays homage to Poets of the Political Imagination a force throughout the Americas rooted in the traditions of Neruda and Whitman and reflects on the political imagination as a catalyst in the creation of his own poetry A dozen of Espada's poems old and new weave themselves through the essays in Zapata's Disciple In a voice charged with anger humor and compassion Espada unleashes his words following Walt Whitman's dictum on what poets should do to cheer up slaves and horrify despots Learning from Experience Paula M. L. Moya, 2002-02-01 In Learning from Experience Paula Moya offers an alternative to some influential philosophical assumptions about identity and experience in contemporary literary theory Arguing that the texts and lived experiences of subordinated people are rich sources of insight about our society Moya presents a nuanced universalist justification for identity based work in ethnic studies This strikingly original book provides eloquent analyses of such postmodernist feminists as Judith Butler Donna Haraway Norma Alarcón and Chela Sandoval and counters the assimilationist proposals of minority neoconservatives such as Shelby Steele and Richard Rodriguez It advances realist proposals for multicultural education and offers an understanding of the interpretive power of Chicana feminists including Cherríe Moraga Gloria Anzaldúa and Helena María Viramontes Learning from Experience enlarges our concept of identity and offers new ways to situate aspects of race gender class and sexual orientation in discursive and sociopolitical contexts Follow the Money Dennis J. Bernstein, 2018-01-10 If we follow the money we find the root of the rot These 66 colorful radio interviews all during the Obama administration are the writing on the wall that foreshadowed a Trump presidency This invaluable resource gives hope as we address our world's myriad challenges Back cover Theologizing en Español Carmen Nanko-Fernandez, 2014-07-30 Handbook of Latina/o Theologies Edwin David Aponte, Miguel A. De La Torre, 2006-05-01 Handbook of Latino a Theologies explores the varied theological ecclesiastical spiritual and cultural

A Stranger's Journey David Mura, 2018-08 Long recognized as a master teacher at writing programs like VONA the Loft and the Stonecoast MFA with A Stranger's Journey David Mura has written a book on creative writing that addresses our increasingly diverse American literature Mura argues for a more inclusive and expansive definition of craft particularly in relationship to race even as he elucidates timeless rules of narrative construction in fiction and memoir His essays offer technique focused readings of writers such as James Baldwin ZZ Packer Maxine Hong Kingston Mary Karr and Garrett Hongo while making compelling connections to Mura s own life and work as a Japanese American writer In A Stranger's Journey Mura poses two central questions The first involves identity How is writing an exploration of who one is and one s place in the world Mura examines how the myriad identities in our changing contemporary canon have led to new challenges regarding both craft and pedagogy Here like Toni Morrison s Playing in the Dark or Jeff Chang s Who We Be A Stranger's Journey breaks new ground in our understanding of the relationship between the issues of race literature and culture The book s second central question involves structure How does one tell a story Mura provides clear insightful narrative tools that any writer may use taking in techniques from fiction screenplays playwriting and myth Through this process Mura candidly explores the newly evolved aesthetic principles of memoir and how questions of identity occupy a central place in contemporary memoir

A Poet's Truth Bruce Allen Dick, 2003-08-01 Among students and aficionados of contemporary literature the work of Latina and Latino poets holds a particular fascination Through works imbued with fire and passion these writers have kindled new enthusiasm in their compatriots and admiration in non Latino readers This book brings together recent interviews with fifteen Latino a poets a cross section of Chicano Puerto Rican and Cuban voices who discuss not only their work but also related issues that help define their place in American literature Each talks at length about the craft of his or her poetry both the influences and the process behind it and takes a stand on social and political issues affecting Latinos across the United States The interviews feature both established writers published as early as the 1960s and emerging artists each of whom has enjoyed success in other literary forms also As Bruce Dick s insightful questions reveal the key threads linking these writers are their connections to their families and communities and their concern for civil rights believing like Chicana writer Pat Mora that the work of the poet is for the people The interviews also reveal diversity among and within the three communities from Victor Hern ndez Cruz who traces Latino collective identity to Africa and claims that all Latinos are swimming in olive oil to Cuban writer Gustavo Perez Firmat who considers nationality more important than ethnicity and says that the term Latino erases his nationality The dialogues also offer new insights on the place of Chicano a writings in the U S Mexico borderlands on the Puerto Rican Nuyoric establishment and on the anti Castro stand of Cuban born poets As these writers answer questions about their work background ethnic identity and political ideology they provide a wealth of biographical intellectual and literary material collected here for the first time A Poet s Truth is a provocative and revealing book that not only conveys the fire of these writers passions but also sheds important light on a whole literary movement Interviews with Miguel Algar n Mart n Espada Sandra Mar a Esteves Victor Hern ndez Cruz Carolina Hospital and Carlos Medina Demetria Mart nez Pat Mora Judith Ortiz Cofer Ricardo Pau Llosa Gustavo P rez Firmat Leroy Quintana Aleida Rodr guez Luis Rodr guez Benjamin Alire S enz Virgil Su rez Lawyer Poets and that World We Call Law James R. Carvalho, 2014-04-17 Acknowledged Legislator Critical Essays on the Poetry of Mart n Espada stands as the first ever collection of essays on poet and activist Mart n Espada It is also to date the only published book length single author study of Espada currently in existence Relying on innovative highly original contributions from thirteen Espada scholars its principal aim is to argue for a long overdue critical awareness of and cultural appreciation for Espada and his body of writing Acknowledged Legislator accomplishes this task in three fundamental ways by providing readers with background information on the poet s life and work offering an examination into the subject matter and dominant themes that are frequently contained in his writing and finally by advocating in a variety of ways for why we should be reading discussing and teaching the Espada canon Divided into four distinct sections that modulate through several theoretical frames from Espada s attention to resistance poetics and concerns for historical memory to his oppositional critique of neoliberalism and support for a class consciousness grounded in labor rights Acknowledged Legislator offers a cohesive forward thinking interpretive statement of the poet's vision and proposes a critical re assessment for how we read Espada now and in the future Jailbreak of Sparrows Martín Espada, 2025-04-01 In this brilliant new collection of poems National Book Award winner Martín Espada offers narratives of the forgotten and the unforgettable The poems in Jailbreak of Sparrows reveal the ways in which the ordinary becomes monumental family portraits politically charged reports and tributes to the unsung Espada's focus ranges from the bombardment of his family's hometown in Puerto Rico amid an anti colonial uprising to the murder of a Mexican man by police in California from the poet's adolescent brawl on a basketball court over martyred baseball hero Roberto Clemente to his unorthodox methods of representing undocumented migrants as a tenant lawyer We also encounter love songs to the poet's wife from a series of unexpected voices a bat with vertigo the polar bear mascot for a minor league ballclub a disembodied head in a jar Jailbreak of Sparrows is a collection of arresting poems that roots itself in the image the musicality of language and the depth of human experience Look at this was all he said and all he had to say the poet says about his father a photographer who documented his Puerto Rican community in Brooklyn and beyond The poems of Martín Espada tell us Look
