Staark,2012-09-01 Zen and the Art of Jiu Jitsu The 30 Day Program to Improve Your Jiu Jitsu Game 1000% Are you Stuck Struggle That s the word that comes to mind when I think about the transition from blue belt to purple belt For reasons that I can t quite work out when I came to the later stages of being a blue belt I felt confused and lost in my game Trying to put all the pieces together seemed like a task too far and quitting looked like an option after all most guys my age are hitting the golf course or surfing not rolling on the floor with sweat soaked people This quitting idea seemed an option at least In an effort to review what I was doing and pushing through this plateau I developed a few habits that not only brought about a huge change in my game but by applying them on a consistent basis turned me into a respected player in my academy From obscurity to recognition even from Black belts and it only took me one month This is a great manual for anyone interested in Brazilian Jiu Jitsu Traditional Jiu Jitsu MMA and Grappling      Techniques from White to Blue Belt Paulo

Fernando,2011-01-25 An instruction manual illustrating and describing 92 techniques required to advance from White Belt to Blue Belt in Brazilian Jiu Jitsu      Zen Jiu Jitsu Training Log Oliver Staark,2013-03-16 Keeping track of your progress is paramount if you plan to improve in your jiu jitsu game Most high level Black Belts and World Champions know that if you improve your technique by only 1% each day then the compounding effect will make you proficient in the gentle art at a very high level Keeping a series of techniques in your head is a complex matter This is human chess after all for every attack there is a defense for every sweep takedown pass submission there is a counter and counter to that counter It makes much more sense to keep taking notes than trying to remember what you did even if you just did it How many times do you get to the next class after practicing a sweep and you can t remember the vaguest detail Also when you review as you should periodically some techniques you will identify as being easy to perform and fit your body type better These techniques I put a checkmark in the corner of my journal and come back to drill some more The techniques that present a challenge should have an X in the corner of the page meaning you need to revisit this in more detail maybe with your professor or coach This art form is a process yet it is system driven One thing leads logically to another It s position transition submission The logic though is lightning in a bottle It needs to be grasped and placed into the correct place in the puzzle or the puzzle will not unlock Remember how a technique was working really well and you were catching everyone or passing guards then a couple of weeks later it stopped working What happened Probably a detail you were applying has now been forgotten Wouldn't it be great if you could go back and retrieve that detail well now you can with the Zen Jiu Jitsu Training Log
