

The Master of Science in Education Degree Program in Education Leadership: School Building Leader and School District Leader prepares students for leadership careers in public, private, and charter PK-12 educational settings. Students who successfully complete the three-semester, 36-credit program become simultaneously eligible for both the New York State School Building Leader (SBL) and School District Leader (SDL) certificates. The program's curriculum is uniquely structured in both scope and sequence to combine small-group, cohort-based colloquiums with content in management and instructional leadership.
