6th of December 2010 – in the recent classroom observation on the ZC11, a block section for first year Information Technology students taking up Study and Thinking Skills class of Dr. Florece. Evelyn E. Florece, PhD is a faculty of the College of Arts and Sciences under the Literature and Language Studies Department. She was the former IELTS Director of Ateneo and has been teaching English and Language since the high school department paved it way to its new home at Pacol, Naga City. Dr.

Florece's afternoon class was composed of 33 Information Technology (IT) majors from the College of Computer studies, most of them were on their first year at Ateneo de Naga University. The observation starts at exactly 1:15 in the afternoon, covering the student's behavior before class. ZC11 was dismissed earlier by their Theology class teacher. Since they were a blocked section, they waited for their next class in the same room. Student's behavior were the typical like waiting for the teacher outside the classroom, some were chatting with their friends, some were doing their assignments and some were just doing nothing.

Classroom Observation Essay Example

Minutes passed and the same student behavior was observed. I overheard some students saying, "sana mayo si ma'am, yaon daw si ma'am?" but another student uttered, "iyo, yaon si ma'am nahiling ko subago" a typical conversation for a student who is waiting for his teacher. But to my analysis, is there something with a teacher that made students say and think as such. I waited for the teacher to arrive and continue observing the student's behavior. Dr. Florece arrived at exactly 1:25 in the afternoon, five minutes before the bell rings.

She enters with confidence and greeted the class with a good afternoon. She placed the white board at the middle of the board and calls for the prayer leader assigned during that day. In every class that she handles, she always assigns a prayer leader who will in turn be the one in-charge of erasing the writings of the board after each class. She is systematic when it comes to prayers, checking of attendance, and in sitting arrangements. She starts the classroom discussion with a reminder about the upcoming preliminary ex

Michael Stubbs, Sara Delamont, 1976 Teacher quality a report on the preparation and qualifications of public school teachers Laurie Lewis, 1999 Resources in Education, 1999 Instructional Supervision Sally J. Zepeda, 2007

The first edition of Instructional Supervision Applying Tools and Concepts was highly regarded by both professors and students for its practicality and its coverage of tools strategies to help supervisors work effectively with teachers up to date approach to clinical supervision which includes teacher portfolios action research peer coaching and other innovative practices authentic case studies classroom examples field experiences prompts for reflection and pragmatic tips The second edition retains all of these features and goes further by offering a comprehensive collection of classroom observation tools a new chapter on confronting marginal teaching expanded coverage of professional development its link to teacher evaluation extended ELCC based self assessment activities for students to help them master the entire cycle of clinical supervision and the development of professional growth plans

Research in Education, 1974 Life in Schools and Classrooms
Rupert Maclean, 2017-05-04 This book discusses key aspects of life in schools and classrooms and surveys the changes that have occurred over the years in educational research policy making and practice in these school and classroom settings It not only examines cutting edge research in these areas but also showcases good practices in the field Among the topics reviewed are recent developments in assessment methods for collecting and analysing data on classroom practice school leadership and the pros and cons of class size and small class teaching topics which are currently hotly debated in education systems around the globe As such the book objectively examines the various debates and surveys the full range of evidence available Education researchers policy makers and practitioners often hold differing views about the reasons for teacher and student behaviour in classrooms and for example its relevance to class size Many of these views are based on gut feelings rather than hard evidence Unfortunately these three groups with differing perspectives often talk past each other rather than engage in a productive mutually beneficial dialogue The book builds an effective bridge between researchers policy makers and practitioners regarding the impact of these various aspects of classroom life so that the viewpoints of each can be carefully considered and evaluated
