Orange Is The New Black:

Feminist Perspectives on Orange Is the New Black April Kalogeropoulos Householder, Adrienne Trier-Bieniek, 2016-07-12 Since its 2013 premiere Orange Is the New Black has become Netflix's most watched series garnering critical praise and numerous awards and advancing the cultural phenomenon of binge watching. Academic conferences now routinely feature panels discussing the show and the book on which it is based is popular course material at many universities. Yet little work has been published on OINTB. The series has sparked debate: does it celebrate diversity or is it told from the perspective of white privilege with characters embodying some of the most racist and sexist stereotypes in television history. This collection of new essays is the first to analyze the show's multiple layers of meaning. Examining Orange Is the New Black from a number of feminist perspectives, the contributors cover topics such as gender, race, class, sexuality, transgenderism, mass incarceration and the prison industrial complex, disability and sexual assault.

Orange is the new black, 2016 New faces and old resentments make for a potentially volatile blend, especially now that Litchfield is a for-profit business. This season delves into the racial and economic tensions that run rampant in the halls of Litchfield. Overrun with new inmates and overseen by inexperienced guards, the prison undergoes an unprecedented culture war.

Orange is the new black, 2015 The story of Piper Chapman, a woman in her thirties who is sentenced to fifteen months in prison after being convicted of a decade-old crime of transporting money for her drug-dealing girlfriend.

Latinx TV in the Twenty-First Century Frederick Luis Aldama, 2022-04-19 Latinx TV in the Twenty-First Century offers an expansive and critical look at contemporary TV by and about U.S. Latinx communities. This volume unpacks the negative implications of older representation and celebrates the progress of new representation, all while recognizing that television still has a long way to go.

Broads, Sisters, Exes Vincent L. Stephens, 2025-03-25 How a new generation of women-centered dramedies has revolutionized contemporary television. This timely and telling analysis identifies the formal and thematic innovations pioneered by millennial feminists between 2012 and 2020 that have shaped the trajectory of our favorite shows today. Author Vincent L. Stephens offers close readings of nine pivotal series including Girls, Orange Is the New Black, Broad City, Jane the Virgin, Crazy Ex-Girlfriend, Fleabag, Insecure, Shrill, and I May Destroy You. Across these series, women-led creative teams translated techniques from indie films, inverted gendered television tropes, and engaged in innovative temporal storytelling. These series, often including showrunners who also act, write, and direct, are the product of a new ecology of television driven by the rise of streaming platforms and a demand for more inclusive narratives. Broads, Sisters, Exes optimistically contends with women as aesthetic innovators and maps their influence on entertainment industry reforms that are slowly but surely increasing accessibility for creatives from groups historically underrepresented across media.

Through elegant prose deeply rooted in an intersectional feminist perspective Stephens expands the aesthetic and narrative grammars of contemporary television Feminist Theory and Pop Culture Adrienne Trier-Bieniek,2020-03-09 Feminist Theory and Pop Culture Second Edition synthesizes feminist theory with modern portrayals of gender in media culture This updated text provides comprehensive and interdisciplinary scholarship focused on topics related to Historical examination of feminist theory Application of feminist research methods Feminist theoretical perspectives such as the male gaze feminist standpoint theory Black feminist thought queer theory masculinity theory theories of feminist activism and postfeminism Contributor chapters cover a range of topics from Western perspectives on belly dance to television shows such as Girls Scandal and Orange is the New Black Feminist theory and the wave of feminism including a discussion of the fourth wave Pedagogical features Suggestions for further reading and discussion questions for classroom use Feminist Theory and Pop Culture was designed for classroom use and has been written with an eye toward engaging students in discussion The book s polished perspective on feminist theory juxtaposes popular culture with theoretical perspectives which have served as a foundation for the study of gender This interdisciplinary text can serve as a primary or supplemental reading Educating through Popular Culture Edward Janak,Ludovic A. Sourdout,2017-03-01 This edited volume serves as a place for teachers and scholars to begin seeking ways in which popular culture has been effectively tapped for research and teaching purposes around the country The contents of the book came together in a way that allowed for a detailed examination of teaching with popular culture on many levels The first part allows teachers in PreK 12 schools the opportunity to share their successful practices The second part affords the same opportunity to teachers in community colleges and university settings The third part shows the impact of US popular culture in classrooms around the world The fourth part closes the loop to some extent showing how universities can prepare teachers to use popular culture with their future PreK 12 students The final part of the book allows researchers to discuss the impact popular culture plays in their work It also seeks to address a shortcoming in the field while there are outlets to publish studies of popular culture and outlets to publish pedagogical practitioner pieces there is no outlet to publish practitioner pieces on studying popular culture in spite of the increased popularity and legitimacy of the field Orange is the New Black Orange is the new black (Television program).,2019

A Corpus-based Critical Discourse Analysis* Seda Evirgen,2021-05-04 Master's Thesis from the year 2020 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Linguistics grade 1.0 Justus Liebig University Giessen language English abstract The thesis at hand puts a special emphasis on the use of persuasive language in online native advertisements from The New York Times After careful examination the corpus will be compiled of three native advertisements from the field of technology by the sponsors Intel Dropbox and Slack The limitation to these native advertisements and persuasive linguistic devices and techniques was necessary with regard to the scope of this thesis As no linguistic analysis of native advertisements could be found there also was no reference to follow Therefore the thesis at hand lays the foundation for further research in this area The aim is to conduct a corpus based Critical Discourse Analysis in order to investigate and answer two main questions 1 Do online native advertisements make use of the same persuasion methods as previously researched for other advertising types 2 What are the most prominent persuasive linguistic devices and techniques in the online native advertisements from The New York Times In addition to the CDA the corpus based approach is expected to provide quantitative evidence of the existence of discourse and to identify repetitive linguistic patterns of persuasive language use in native advertising The thesis will be structured as follows First the theoretical framework provides general information about the functions and characteristics of advertising while further focusing on native advertisement and the language of advertising It continues with explaining the concept of persuasive language on the basis of ethos logos and pathos and introduces some powerful persuasive techniques in advertisement Further linguistic devices of persuasive language on the phonetic lexical morphological and syntactic level will be defined Additionally the concept of Critical Discourse Analysis will be explained in detail as the thesis at hand follows the CDA framework of Fairclough The data collection method and data analysis procedure will be outlined in Chapter 3 This is followed by an analysis of three online native advertisements from the publisher The New York Times After the analysis the results will be presented and evaluated in order to assess the hypothesis Finally the conclusion provides a summary of the findings and suggests further research opportunities
