Dear Sir/Madam

I am writing to tell you that I need your help to save the planet. You're my favourite company in the world and I know that you are best for the job. The reason that I am writing is that our topic in Laurel Class at Thornton Dale School is the 'global community'. So I need to ask you 'how green are you?'

Climate change is a big problem in the world so I need your help. If no-one helps then there is a good chance that the planet will die! The truth is – it would be our fault. The plants and other living creatures are just as important as humans.

Have you thought of all the plastic on your shelves? It is a big issue that we use so much of this stuff – is there any way you could use less? We all need to help to stop climate change and make a difference. We need to use less of everything we can to reduce what we are using. Are you interested in helping me?

Yours Sincerely

Charlotte
